Ex-Officer Jailed After Week's Hunt

Cunningham Nabbed By Sheriff, Deputy While In Wellsville

Missing for a week after his appeal of an attempted bribery of a juror was dismissed, Ira Cunningham was in the County Jail at Lisbon today, apprehended Thursday afternoon in Wellsville.

The 54-year-old former city policeman was spotted in an auto by Sheriff Russell VanFossan and Chief Deputy James Miller at 18th St. and Clark Ave. about 3:25 and was taken into custody.

VanFossan and Miller, in a cruiser, had stopped for a traffic signal when they saw Cunningham approaching from the south. Miller jumped out of the cruiser and waved Cunningham to a halt.

He said he had been to Steubenville to consult with his attorney. Cunningham was booked at the County Jail at 4:10.

The Ohio Supreme Court earlier this month dismissed his appeal of a 1959 conviction for attempting to influence a prospective juror in his 1958 burglary trial.

The appeal was dismissed because proper fees and papers had not been filed, and a later attempt this month to meet requirements was also turned down by the Court. Cunningham conferred with Prosecutor G. William Brokaw Jan. 18, asking for a delay in being taken into custody to start a 1-5 year prison term, saying he wanted to confer with his attorney and submit a new appeal.

The prosecutor issued a capias for the onetime officer, but told him he could have another day to file whatever action he wished.

When Sheriff VanFossan went to Cunningham's Riley Ave. home the next day, he was told by Mrs. Cunningham her husband was not home. It was believed he had gone to Washington where Atty. Hugo Alexander of Steubenville, his attorney, was attending the inauguration.

He was one of seven officers and ex-special officers indicted in 1956 for a series of burglaries.

County authorities said commitment papers will be obtained, and Cunningham may be taken to the Ohio Penitentiary at Columbus next week unless some kind of court action intercedes.

Atty. Alexander's office indicated last week a new appeal may be filed.

All-Star Game Aide Arrested

Palestine Man Cited For Embezzling $82

Melvin Smith of N. Sumner St., East Palestine, former Wellsville resident, was bound over to the Columbiana County Grand Jury Thursday night on an embezzlement charge stemming from a 1960 all-star high school football game.

Smith, who operates a furnace and heating business, pleaded not guilty to the charge filed with County Judge Herbert Arfman at East Palestine by the East Palestine Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Smith, free today on $500 bond, is accused of converting $82 from the funds of the high school football game — a Jaycee project — to his own use. The charge was signed by Gary Doran, club president, and other officers.

High school players from Columbiana and Beaver County schools played the game at Patterson Field.

Collection Of Taxes Far Short Of Duplicate

LISBON — Less than half the full real estate tax duplicate for Columbiana County has been collected with only 2 1/2 days before the deadline, County Treasurer Vincent C. Judge said today.

The collection so far totals $843,737, compared to the estimated full duplicate of $2,379,921, the treasurer said.

The volume of payments has been very heavy the past few days, but largely from smaller duplicates, with the majority of large tax payers still to file, he explained.

Taxes collected after Tuesday are subject to a 10 per cent penalty. The treasurer's offices will be open Saturday morning, Monday and Tuesday.

U.S. Plane Missing

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — A U.S. Army plane with two American officers aboard has been missing since Thursday in rugged mountain terrain southwest of Tehran. U.S. and Iranian aircraft are searching for the twin-engine L23.

U.S. Navy Appeals

Free Passengers, Hijackers Urged

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP) — The U.S. Navy appealed again Thursday night to the rebel commander of the Santa Maria to free the captive liner's 588 passengers on this side of the Atlantic and offered to remove them at sea off the Brazilian port of Belem.

Adm. Robert L. Dennison, commander of the U.S. Atlantic Fleet, broadcast his appeal as the cruise ship commandeered by enemies of Portugal's dictator, Antonio de Oliveira Salazar still sped toward West Africa but along a southeasterly course paralleling the northeast coast of Brazil. The Santa Maria Thursday night was 750 miles northeast of Belem.

Dennison called on the rebel leader, Henrique M. Galvao, to change his course and proceed toward Belem, at the mouth of the Amazon River, to discharge the liner's passengers. Among them are 42 Americans.

"Am sure you agree it best (to) accomplish transfer (of passengers) as soon as possible on this side of Atlantic," Dennison said. "If this agreeable to you will have U.S. Navy ship meet you off port to assist in transfer of passengers if necessary."

The U. S. task force of four destroyers and 18 planes chasing the runaway cruise ship are under direct orders from President Kennedy not to force a boarding of the 20,906-ton liner even though Salazar has denounced Galvao and his men as pirates.

Dennison's message came after Galvao, demanding to be treated as a "politician fighting for the freedom of this country," had offered to meet with U.S. representatives aboard his captured ship in due time.

Early this morning, a shadowing Navy plane reported the Santa Maria at 5 degrees north latitude, 36 degrees and 50 minutes west longitude, still on a southeasterly course in the direction of Africa.

The U.S. destroyer Wilson set out immediately from the Caribbean for Belem in the hope that Galvao would accept the American proposal. The Wilson is due to reach the mouth of the Amazon Sunday.

Galvao told the U.S. Navy pilot who first located him Wednesday that he was bound for Angola, rich Portuguese colony on the south-west African coast. It was believed that he and his band of 70 who seized the ship hoped to set off an uprising in Angola against the Salazar regime.

There was speculation Galvao might try to land the passengers.

Gov. Barron Signs Sales Tax Hike Bill

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Gov. Barron has signed into law the second legislative act implementing a 7 1/2 month crash program for unemployment relief.

The measure extended from July 1 through Aug. 31 a temporary increase in the consumers sales tax from two to three per cent on sales of over a dollar. Barron earlier signed an act to provide for an increase from Jan. 15 through the remainder of this fiscal year. This measure also made supplementary appropriations totaling $4.5 million for conservation, highway and other public works projects for that period.

Estimates on the yield from the higher tax have ranged from $6 million to $7.5 million.

To Film Hijacking

MUNICH, Germany (AP) — A Munich film company today announced plans to make a movie about the hijacking of the liner Santa Maria.

In Same Big Capsule

Soviet's Next Bid May Be To Put 2 Men Into Orbit

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union's next space spectacular could be to put two men into orbit, both in the same big capsule.

She would not only seize the prize of being first in human space flight — two men would trump even more the U.S. program to put one astronaut into orbit.

Four Soviet range ships patrolling the Pacific Ocean for the last week in the target area used for some of the Soviet missile firings indicate Moscow is on the verge of trying another space shoot.

There is much speculation this might be a spacecraft carrying a man, rather than a collection of animals.

The possibility the Soviets might send up two men at once is reasonable speculation, a U.S. space official said informally.

The Soviet have the capability of a big booster rocket and large capsule, he said. And "solving the problems of re-entry and life support is no harder for two men than for one."

Many space and rocket experts think the race to put a man in space is almost sure to go to the Soviets. The Soviets long have had much more powerful booster rockets.

Sputnik II-launched back in November, 1957, and carrying the dog Laika—is interpreted as a clear signal the Soviets had already begun then to prepare for putting man into space, months before the United States had even launched her first small satellite.

The U.S. timetable doesn't foresee sending a man on a few trips around the earth until much later this year.

First must come the successful lofting of an animal, and then later an astronaut. On his initial flight, the first spaceman will be rocketed just a few hundred miles down the Atlantic Range, with recovery of the capsule at sea.

4th Wellsville Democrat's In Mayor's Race

Clifford Fultz Files For May Ballot Spot; Total Climbs To 71

Another Democrat filed Thursday afternoon with the County Election Board to run for the Wellsville mayor's post in the May 2 primaries.

He is Clifford Fultz, 1717 Clark Ave., an employee of the Lisbon office of the State Highway Department, who won the mayoralty nomination in the 1959 primaries but was defeated in the general election by Mayor William J. Shoub, the Republican incumbent.

Dominic A. Dash, 1017 Center St., filed today as a Democratic candidate for Councilman-at-large of Wellsville.

Nine others entered overnight, boosting total filings to 71. They include H. A. Tullis of Michigan Ave., a former councilman and an employee of the Midland Works of the Crucible Steel Co., for the Republican nomination for First Ward councilman, and William T. Kind of E. 4th St., for the Republican nomination for mayor. Kind announced last week.

Thomas F. Grafton also filed for the Republican nomination for Wellsville mayor, confirming a previous announcement.

Dash, an employee of the transportation department of Crucible Steel Co. for 20 years, previously served 8 years as Third Ward councilman. He also served a one-year unexpired term as councilman-at-large when Frank Wilson became a county commissioner.

He served as chairman of the street and light committee during his former four-year terms as a member of Council.

Married, with one daughter at home, Dash, 53, is a member of Gas Concern To Cut Rates By 1 1/2 Cents

The Ohio Valley Gas Co. announced today rates will be reduced by 1 1/2 cents per 1,000 cubic feet, starting March 1.

Harold Sneddon, manager of the East Liverpool district, said reductions from pipeline suppliers reduced the utility's gas costs.

The decrease will also benefit customers in 20 other Eastern Ohio communities in the Steubenville Division of the firm under provisions of their fuel cost clauses.

The company has an escalator clause in its franchises with the various communities, providing for adjustments in case of change in the cost of fuel.

Sneddon remarked, "The escalator clause works both ways."

The utility serves 43,000 customers in the Eastern Ohio area between Bellaire and East Liverpool.

Other gas utilities in the Tri-State district make refunds after the Federal Power Commission worked out an agreement with the Tennessee Gas Transmission Co. to reduce by about 50 per cent two wholesale rate increases inaugurated since 1957. The FPC action occurred Dec. 27.

Greetings At Capital

Kennedy Welcomes 2 American Pilots Released By Soviet

Chief Joins Fliers Wives In Greeting

Other Officials At Maryland Airport When Airmen Land

WASHINGTON (AP) — The two freed RB47 fliers today returned to America and a quiet but heart-warming reception from President Kennedy and their families.

Capt. John R. McKone, 28, and Freeman B. Olmstead, 25, landed at 11:58 a.m. EST at Andrews Air Force Base, Md., after a seven-month ordeal of imprisonment by the Soviets.

An icy wind blew sharp gusts and the thermometer hovered at 20 degrees as the fliers stepped into the arms of their loved ones.

Their wives had been waiting here since yesterday to meet them. Also here were Olmstead's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Blaine Olmstead of Elmira, N.Y., and the flier's brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. C. Brent Olmstead.

Other welcome included Secretary of the Air Force Eugene Zuckert, Air Force Chief of Staff Gen. Thomas D. White, and Richard H. Davis, deputy assistant secretary of state for European affairs.

President Kennedy, who announced the fliers' release dramatically two days ago, flew out the 15 miles from the White House to Andrews Air Force Base to greet the homecomers.

Boys Confess 5 Auto Thefts Within 7 Days

Arrest of two East Liverpool boys Thursday night cleared up five car theft cases in the last week, including two Wednesday night, police reported.

The boys, 14 and 15, admitted the thefts under questioning by Lt. Thomas A. Walker, police said. They are scheduled to appear with their parents today at City Hall before Probation Officer Chris Pusey.

Police said the two admitted they were so unfamiliar with the operation of an auto that they drove the stolen cars until they stalled, then abandoned them. Several of the cars stolen within the past week here were found with dead batteries.

Lt. Walker arrested the pair after learning they fitted the descriptions of two boys who had been seen in a stolen car at Newell, officers said.

The pair admitted taking a 1955 auto owned by James Adkins Jr., 416 Vine St., which disappeared Wednesday between 9:15 and 9:30 p.m. from Orange Alley. The car was found at 11:35 Wednesday night at 5th and Washington Sts., Newell, by Hancock Deputy Arnie Durham.

Then the boys stole a 1952 auto owned by Leslie Thornberry, 201 Harrison St., Newell. It was found abandoned at the intersection of Routes 30 and 151 in Beaver County.

Police said other thefts which the boys admitted were: The 1955 sedan of Worthie Varner Jr., 626 Riley Ave., taken Jan. 19 from Bradshaw Ave. and recovered early the following day on Maine Blvd.

The 1956 sedan of Charles Aikens of Prospect St., stolen from near the owner's home Tuesday and recovered Wednesday on Morton St.

The 1953 sedan of Robert Henthorne, 734 Sophia St., stolen Tuesday night from Sophia St. and located about 2 hours later in the 900 block of St. Clair Ave.

New Efforts Set Feb. 2 At Warsaw

U.S. To Press Red China For Release Of Five Yanks

WASHINGTON (AP) — With the release of two American airmen by the Soviet Union now accomplished, the United States is planning to press Communist China again for the release of five Americans still held in Chinese jails.

U.S. officials said today the new effort on behalf of the prisoners will be made at Warsaw Feb. 2 when the Chinese Communist and American ambassadors are scheduled to hold their 103rd meeting. State Department officials consider the continued holding of the five Americans a primary block to any improvement in relations with Communist China.

The subject came up Thursday night at an Indian Embassy reception when reporters talked briefly with Soviet Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov.

Menshikov had a chat with W. Averell Harriman, Kennedy's special roving ambassador, and then told newsmen it depends on both sides to make progress in settling disputes.

He cited the Soviet release of the fliers and asked what the United States would do in return. Asked if the Chinese Communists would join in fresh attempts to solve outstanding problems, Menshikov said "this also depends on both sides."

But the cool reception given to President Kennedy in the Chinese Communist Press is far from encouraging.

The President noted this at his news conference this week when he spoke of the somewhat belligerent attitude of the Chinese Communist regime toward his new administration.

Nevertheless, U.S. Ambassador Jacob Beam will be instructed to again seek the liberation of the imprisoned Americans when he next meets Chinese Communist Ambassador Wang Ping-nan at Warsaw, officials said.

The five Americans are John Thomas Downey, New Britain, Conn.; Richard George Fecteau, Lynn, Mass.; Robert Ezra McCann, Pasadena, Calif.; Hugh Francis Redmond Jr., Yonkers, N.Y., and Bishop James Edward Walsh of the Roman Catholic Maryknoll order.

5 Could Kill Veto

Showdown's Due In Council On Tax

The final showdown on East Liverpool's fourth city income tax ordinance is due at a special Council meeting tonight at 7:30.

If 5 of the 7 members vote favorably, Mayor Bert H. Goodballet's veto will be overridden and the tax will go into effect immediately.

If fewer than 5 vote to override, the ordinance will be dead without having produced a penny, although it was enacted Dec. 29.

Some members of Council said they have no definite indication whether their chamber will be packed with persons seeking an opportunity to speak for and against the tax.

ON SEVERAL occasions in 1958 and 1959 when a former Council was considering income tax measures, overflow crowds appeared to speak on both sides of the question.

Trades and Labor Council, which fought similar measures in two initiatives and referendum campaigns, also has taken a stand against the present ordinance.

Trades Council has announced it expects to force the issue to a vote of the people for a fourth time.

At a special meeting, under normal circumstances, Council may consider only the items of business listed in the formal "call" for the meeting, which is signed

City To Gain Or Lose $150,000 In Tax Vote

Council's vote tonight to override or sustain Mayor Bert H. Goodballet's veto of a city income tax will be worth at least $150,000 in new revenue to the financially - pressed city treasury.

Council has estimated the tax of one half of one per cent — 50 cents on each $100 of income — will mean $200,000 annually. If the tax becomes effective, it will be collected at least for 9 months pending another threatened test at the polls. In 9 months, it should produce 75 per cent of a year's revenue, or $150,000.

by all the members. That precludes running through the whole agenda of business that comes up at a regular meeting, including "personal privilege," the section reserved for citizens to speak.

HOWEVER, it is possible for Council to waive the rule and permit citizens to speak at a special meeting — although such action rarely is taken.

The procedure to override is comparatively brief.

After Council convenes, reads

Legislature Gets Resolutions

West Virginia Vote Asked On Liquor-By-Drink Issue

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — A resolution introduced in both houses of the Legislature today would put the liquor-by-the-drink issue before West Virginia voters in the 1962 general election.

Sens. Arch W. Riley, D-Ohio, and O. G. Hedrick, D-Marion, introduced the resolution in the Senate. Dels. J. E. Ned Watson, D-Marion, and Chester R. Hubbard, R-Ohio, are the House sponsors.

Approval by two-thirds of the full membership of both houses is required to put the proposed constitutional amendment on the election ballot.

Ratification of the amendment would leave future regulation of liquor sales entirely in the hands of the Legislature. The Legislature would have the power to legalize liquor by the drink, but would not be required to do so.

The amendment would require the lawmakers to accompany any liquor-by-the-drink legislation with provision for county and municipal option elections.

Sponsors of the resolution emphasized that its defeat in a referendum would leave unchanged the existing system, which permits sale of liquor only by the bottle in state-operated stores.

Two delegates from rural counties introduced in the House a bill to require the state road commissioner to maintain at least one rock crusher in each of the state's 10 road districts.

The proposal by Dels. B. Noel Poling, R-Jackson, and E. K. Kelley, D-Putnam, would require rotation of the crushers among the several counties of the various districts as the "need therefor shall justify."

New Cold Due After Month's 3rd Snowfall

Storm Adds 2 To 3 Inches Of Snow To Area's Accumulation

Winter will lash the snow-burdened Tri-State District with another blow tonight — temperatures are expected to dip to near zero.

The third storm of the month dropped 2 to 3 inches of snow on the area Thursday, giving highway crews another workout.

Roads remained only fair in Columbiana County despite extensive cinderling yesterday and the State Highway Department garage at Leetonia said the sub-freezing cold added to the condition.

Gaylord Zellers, supervisor, said "it was too cold" for the salt to melt the snow. All 18 crews were out from the time the snow started about noon until 11 last night, and many of the trucks returned to the task today, equipped with snow plows to clear the edges of the principal roads.

Area roads were snow-covered and slippery, according to the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon, but no traffic mishaps were reported this morning.

Driving conditions were hazardous in many parts of Ohio as the state highway department's 227 crews attempted to remedy the slippery conditions as quickly as possible.

The roughest conditions, the department reports, are in Eastern and Northeastern Ohio as far south as St. Clairsville. Many slippery areas are reported too, in Northern and Central Ohio.

Northwestern Ohio has only a few slippery spots, the department

Pair Pleads Innocent To Kidnaping Doctor

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Two New York men pleaded innocent today to charges of kidnapping a Steubenville, Ohio, physician.

Peter L. Rizzo, 21, and Anthony Pizzuto, 24, entered the pleas before Judge Rabe F. Marsh in U.S. District Court.

Judge Marsh tentatively set trial for sometime next week after government and defense attorneys both said they wished an early trial.

Rizzo and Pizzuto remained free on $10,000 bond each pending start of the trial.

A federal grand jury had indicted the pair for kidnapping after Dr. Ralph M. Rea said they forced him into an auto at a Steubenville parking lot last Nov. 16 and drove him to near Pittsburgh before he managed to escape.

'That Was A Wonderful ...'

Pastors Tire Of Remarks

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks ministers get tired of hearing: "That was a wonderful sermon, but wasn't it the same one you preached last year?" "My husband sends his regards. Unfortunately, he couldn't attend services this morning. He had a golf game he simply couldn't get out of."

"The collection came to $38.50, a Canadian quarter—and three buttons."

"Why is it ministers are always asking for money, money, money? Don't they ever think of anything else?"

"If this church was run on sound business principles, there wouldn't be any deficit."

"I can do without a new dress for another year, dear. But we simply have to find a way to get a new suit. You can't afford to look so shabby."

"Instead of preaching so much about juvenile delinquency, why doesn't he do something about his own kid? He's about the wildest boy in town."

"He's such a nice man. I wonder why he never became a bishop?"

"Sure, I know he's against sin, but that isn't enough. What I want to know is, what's he for?"

"The church finance committee wanted to increase your salary, but decided the remaining funds should be spent on repainting the recreation center."

"What does he want to build a new church for, anyway? This church was good enough for my great-grandfather. It ought to be good enough for him."

"Why is he so dead set against bingo? If we got a good bingo game going, we could afford to roof the church in gold leaf."

"I know it's 3 a. m., but it's about my wife. She thinks I've been out with a blonde again. Can't you come over and talk a little sense to her? You're the only one she'll listen to."

"It's a real emergency. Our regular minister didn't show up for the Rotary Club luncheon, and the boys would sure appreciate it if you'd rush right over and give us a snappy invocation."

"The other 12-year-old girls in my class are dating steady, daddy. Why do I have to be penalized just because I'm a minister's daughter?"

"The bridegroom left this $10 bill in an envelope for you. He said he'd have given more but that, after all, it was his third marriage."

"We've got a little problem about the church picnic. Thirty-five ladies showed up with potato salad—and nobody brought hot dogs."

Youth Admits Slaying Girl

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—A teen-age girl was found beaten to death in a ravine near her home and police said a schoolmate admitted hitting her on the head with a rock.

The battered and tumbleweed covered body of Janice McKerrrow, 14, was found Thursday night by her 8-year-old brother who pointed it out to his uncle and a police officer.

An autopsy showed the girl had not been sexually assaulted. Police Chief Paul Shaver said the youth, also 14, was being driven to the police station when he said: "I did it." Shaver said the youth later told officers that he hit the girl on the head with a rock.

Shaver said the boy was arrested at his home after his parents called officers to report their son apparently had been in a fight. The chief would not release the name of the youth.

No charges were filed against the boy and he was held overnight in the Juvenile Detention Home.

The slender blonde girl, an accomplished musician and straight "A" student, was last seen by a close friend, Nancy Weaver. She said she saw Janice walking away from school carrying her violin and school books.

Shaver said the violin and books were found near the body and showed there were signs of a struggle. Police said they found pieces of a cinder block, covered with what appeared to be blood, next to the body.

Governor Asks Bliss To Reconsider Refusal

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has asked Ray C. Bliss, Ohio Republican chairman, to reconsider his refusal to serve on a bipartisan commission which would recommend ways of selecting a 24th Ohio congressman.

Bliss said Thursday he had no wish to serve with the group, proposed to decide whether a new district should be created or the additional congressman be elected at-large.

The governor said earlier that without Bliss on the commission, it would "go down the drain."

Ohio is entitled to one more congressman on the basis of the 1960 census.

Indonesia Plane Still Not Located With 21

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Indonesian Airways said today it has been unable to trace an airliner missing since Tuesday with 21 persons aboard including an American.

The plane was en route from Jakarta to Bandung in East Java when it ran into bad weather. Cloudy weather since has made an air search difficult and ground search teams are hampered because the region outside Bandung is infested with Darul Islam rebels.

One of the 16 passengers aboard was Norbert Ward of Hamilton, Ohio, a training officer for the International Cooperation Administration.

Gas Tax Held As Key To Highway Program

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A gasoline tax on motorists, not deficit government spending, should provide the 13 billion dollars more for the interstate highway program, Associated General Contractors of Missouri were told Thursday.

Rep. Gordon H. Scherer, R-Ohio, told the contractors' convention: "Deficit government spending is the chief cause of inflation. If we start this inflationary spiral, we will further increase the cost of completing our highway program."

Blocks Fare Boost

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—In its fight against a fare increase by Youngstown Transit Co., the city Thursday was granted a temporary restraining order prohibiting a boost from the present 25-cent fare. Common Pleas Judge Erskine Maiden Jr. also relieved the bus company of its oral promise not to raise fares.

Pottery Union Convention To Open June 26

The International Brotherhood of Operative Potters announced today its 67th annual convention will open June 26 in Miami Beach, Fla.

The convention site was chosen by delegates at the 1960 annual meeting, but the opening date was set by the Executive Board at its

Union Names 12 More Nominees For Primary

The number of nominees for a March 7 primary election for 12 international offices has climbed to 131, a gain of 12 from the 119 listed a week ago, the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters said today.

It's the third cumulative list of nominees published by the union in its official newspaper, The Potters Herald, based on nominations made by local unions. However, the number of nominees for president stands unchanged at nine.

The two candidates receiving the highest votes for each office in the primaries will run again in a general election May 2.

midwinter meeting, the IBOP said. The meeting will be held in the DeLido Hotel. The Brotherhood's 1959 convention also was held in Miami Beach.

Local unions will elect convention delegates in April, a procedure set in the international constitution, the IBOP reminded. The size of each local's representation is based on its membership.

The union said letters have been sent to locals with details of the convention, along with a reminder about resolutions that will be presented for inclusion in the printed program.

The convention generally is in session about a week. New international officers scheduled to be elected in May probably will be installed as one of the highlights of the program.

Jury Disagreement Ends $900,000 Suit

CHICAGO (AP)—The $900,000 damage suit filed by survivors of six Tennessee men killed in a highway accident near Canton, Ohio, two years ago ended in Chicago Thursday in a jury disagreement.

The victims were in a car en route to Toledo, Ohio, when it collided with a tractor-trailer. They were on their way to pick up used cars for resale in Cleveland, Tenn.

Killed in the accident were Horace Burchfield, Richard Kelly, Robert D. Lee, John Bigson, Herbert Goins, and David H. Clark.

The attorney for the relatives said the case, against the truck's owners, American Mineral Spirits Co. and Marzel's Inc., will be retried.

$100,000 Is Stolen From Airways Safe

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The FBI said today a package containing $100,000 was stolen from an Australian Qantas Empire Airways safe at San Francisco International Airport.

Agent Bruce Banks said that the money was taken by someone who apparently knew the combination of the safe.

The money, in large bills, was en route from Hong Kong to the Crocker Anglo National Bank here. The money arrived by British Overseas Airways jet liner after banking hours Wednesday and was stored with the Qantas office, the FBI said.

GOP Group Urges Jobless Aid Extension

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Ripon Club, a Republican group, approved a resolution Thursday night calling upon the Republican-controlled Ohio General Assembly to act immediately on extending jobless benefits an additional 13 weeks.

The resolution expressed the belief that "an extreme emergency exists in Ohio in that thousands of workers have exhausted their unemployment benefits." Copies were sent to GOP legislative leaders.

Motorist Cited In City Mishap

A 23-year-old Wellsville driver was cited by police as an aftermath of one of three traffic mishaps in East Liverpool Thursday afternoon.

Frederick J. Sutherland Jr. of the Patterson Apartments, Wellsville, was fined $15 and costs today in Municipal Court on a charge of failure to yield the right-of-way filed after a mishap which involved his 1951 car and a 1958 station wagon operated by William S. Wilson, 25, of 728 Avondale St., at 12:55 p.m. yesterday at Broadway and Potters Alley.

Wilson was driving north on Broadway and Sutherland was entering the thoroughfare from the alley, police said.

A mishap at 1st Ave. and Fox Alley at 1:50 p.m. yesterday damaged a 1958 car driven by Miles Zetz, 30, of Industry and a 1960 auto operated by Rudolf Bauer, 30, of Poland, police said.

A collision at Hill Blvd. and St. Clair Ave. at 4:45 p.m. damaged a 1956 car driven by John T. Smith Jr., 16, of Harding Ave. and a 1957 station wagon operated by Frances Aronson, 2300 St. Clair Ave., police said.

The woman driver was halted on Hill Blvd. and Smith was turning off St. Clair onto Hill Blvd., police said. Smith said his vision was obscured by snow on the windows and he saw the Aronson car too late to avoid a collision.

Georgetown Man's Car Demolished In Wreck

The sedan of a Georgetown motorist was demolished when it wrecked at 3:40 a. m. today on State Route 2 north of New Cumberland.

Hancock County sheriff's deputies said Donald Kincaid, 26, was driving his 1954 Chevrolet sedan south on Route 2 when he attempted to pass a truck and went off the highway.

The truck was operated by James Earl Priest, 50, of Pughstown.

Kincaid was cited on a charge of failure to have his auto under control, deputies said. There were no injuries.

Film On Pony Express Shown Midland Lions

A film on the origin of the Pony Express was screened at the meeting of the Midland Lions Club Thursday night at Deramo's Restaurant.

The program was arranged by Paul McGeehan and Howard Thorne, head of the visual aid department of the high school, showed the film.

William Palifroni of Beaver Falls, zone chairman, was a guest. Albert Masters, president, presided.

The annual Brotherhood dinner will be held Feb. 23 but plans are not complete.

County Constables Report On 1960 Work

A total of 84 breaking and enterings and 241 traffic accidents were investigated by constables reporting to the Columbiana County Constables Association, according to the annual summary of activities.

Constable Roy Painter of Hanover Township, president, said officers patrolled 110,568 miles, recovered $4,247 in property stolen, served 342 civil papers and made 201 arrests.

There were 1,112 warnings issued and investigations made of 5 attempted suicides and 8 attempts of rape.

Warren Man Is Jailed In Non-Support Case

LISBON — Robert Daniel Ross, 24, of Warren R.D. 2, who was secretly indicted for non-support by the January Grand Jury, pleaded innocent Thursday afternoon before Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp.

Ross was picked up by Trumbull County authorities and returned to Columbiana County. Unable to make $1,000 bond, he was confined in the County Jail.

Tompos Asks Resignation Of State's PSC

Sen. William Tompos of Hancock County called for the resignation of West Virginia's three-member Public Service Commission in remarks on the Senate floor Thursday in Charleston at the 55th session of the State Legislature.

The Weirton Democrat insisted, among other things, that they have failed to stop excessive rate increases for gas and telephone companies and have failed to protect the public against "excessive and discriminatory" boosts.

Sen. Tompos said he feels it would be in the best public interest for the present commissioners to resign, "to make room for men who will serve the general welfare of the people of West Virginia."

Tompos said the PSC has not been performing its original role of a "militant protector of public rights." He added, "It has, and is contenting itself with acting merely as an occasional judge between the utilities on one side and the consumer on the other."

PSC chairman, Myron Renick, of Fayetteville, was unavailable for comment. There was no comment from the other PSC commissioners, Hillis Townsend of Charleston and T. D. Kauffelt of Huntington.

2 Children Hurt In Crash Of Car

LISBON — The young son and daughter of a Columbiana woman received minor injuries when her car crashed on a curve of Route 164 Thursday at 3:30 p.m., according to the State Highway Patrol.

The patrol said Mrs. Gwendolyn D. Gibson, 26, was traveling north in a 1955 coach when she failed to negotiate a curve and rolled over.

The mishap occurred about two and a half miles south of Columbiana.

Her daughter, Kathleen, 4, suffered lacerations of the inside of the mouth, and a son, Dean, 2, lacerations of the forehead. Both were treated by a physician.

Mrs. Gibson was cited on a charge of reckless operation, the patrol said.

Midland Man Released From Term For Theft

Carl Leak, 332 Ohio Ave., Midland, who had been in jail since Jan. 14 for the theft of a $1 bottle of wine from an East End market, was given a conditional release from a County Jail term Thursday by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

Leak had been sentenced to 30 days in jail when he pleaded guilty to the theft Jan. 16. Police said he took the wine from the Ohnezett Market on Pennsylvania Ave. and shoved the proprietor, Earl Ohnezett, through a window in an effort to escape.

Leak's family showed the judge a receipt to prove it had made restitution for damages of more than $50 to the window. Leak was released on condition he stay out of the market and "out of East Liverpool unless he has legitimate business here," the judge said.

Slight Damage Occurs From Fire At Chester

Only slight damage resulted from a fire in the flooring at the home of Miss Myrtle Cunningham of Fairview Rd., Chester, Thursday afternoon about 4:20.

The blaze apparently stemmed from the use of a blow torch to thaw frozen water pipes in the cellar earlier in the afternoon, firemen said.

A neighbor had thawed the pipes about 2:30 when notified by a relative of Miss Cunningham, who is ill. Later, those in the large frame house smelled smoke from some particles of rag which had apparently ignited from the torch.

Some 16 firemen in 2 trucks responded to the alarm. Firemen had difficulty in starting the smaller truck, it was reported.

Council Reviews Bids On Waterford Project

NEW WATERFORD — Sixteen bids for construction of a proposed sewage disposal plant and trunk line were studied and reviewed by Council at a meeting Thursday night, but no action was taken pending approval by governmental agencies involved.

Because a $30,000 federal grant and a $160,000 federal loan are included in the financing of the project, approval by those agencies will be required before final action can be taken.

Low bids for the project total $231,000, compared to the original estimate of $273,000. Federal action is expected in 90 days, with work slated to start by summer. Village voters approved a $35,000 bond issue last year for the project.

Asian Flu Hits England

LONDON (AP) — Influenza outbreaks in the English Midlands has been identified as Asian flu. The health ministry said the epidemic is expected to spread south to London in the next few weeks.

Activities Of Game Protector Detailed At Hookstown Group

The varied duties of a game protector were discussed by Harry Merz, Beaver County game protector, at the meeting of the South Beaver County Civic Association Thursday night at the Hookstown Grange Hall.

Merz explained the men are state game law enforcement officers, rables control agents, educators, speakers, instructors and "a balance wheel between city and rural residents."

The game protectors also aid in the control of stray dogs, enlist farmers in the farm game program and are in charge of trapping live rabbits in densely-populated areas, Merz said.

As educators, the protectors teach the conservation of natural resources and human life while as speakers they address all types of groups "to help the people help themselves," Merz continued.

The county game protectors also train instructors for the National Rifle Association's safety course. Knowledge of the safe handling of weapons is necessary not only for hunters but for members of hunters' families, he said.

In brief business with William A. Littell, vice president, in charge, leaflets explaining the county personal tax were distributed and James Russell, chairman of the highways committee, reported on the Shippingport bridge hearing.

Leo O'Mara announced the Racoon Boys Club will sponsor an NRA safety course starting Feb. 3 at the St. Joseph Lead Co. Anyone 12 or older may enroll by calling John Dugan, SP. 4-1548. A 50-cent fee will be charged.

The next meeting is Feb. 23.

Goldwater Plans School Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., says he will introduce a bill to turn back to the people three or four billion dollars in tax money to be used locally to improve schools.

He hasn't worked out the details, Goldwater said in a television debate on CBS "Face the Nation" with Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, D-Minn., but there would be no requirement that the returned tax money must be used for education.

He said it was his hope that a taxpayer, having received for example a $100 tax rebate, might be more inclined to vote for local school bond issues.

Goldwater, a leading GOP conservative, and McCarthy, a Democratic liberal, debated the question "Does a Big Federal Government Threaten our Freedom?" It was held in the old Supreme Court chamber in the Capitol without audience or a panel of questioners.

Outlawed Irish Army Blamed For Ambush

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — A police constable was killed today in an ambush blamed on the outlawed Irish Republican Army.

The raiding party shot the policeman near Rosslea, on the Ulster side of the Ulster-Irish Republic border.

The IRA makes frequent forays across the border, usually seeking to seize arms from police posts.

Bituminous Production Down, Coal Assn. Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Coal Assn. today estimated bituminous production for the week ended Jan. 21 as about 7,090,000 tons against 8,650,000 tons for the corresponding period last year.

Production for the week ended Jan. 14 was 7,985,000 tons.

Production for the Jan. 1-Jan. 21 period was estimated at about 21,905,000 tons compared with 26,960,000 tons a year ago.

Man In Burglary Case Given 1-15-Year Term

LISBON—Joseph Stephen Volke, 33, of North Lima, indicted for burglary of the garage of Lawrence Coy of Columbiana Nov. 11, was sentenced to 1-15 years in the Ohio State Penitentiary Thursday by Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp.

Volke pleaded guilty Monday at arraignment and asked for immediate sentencing but Prosecutor G. William Brokaw asked a delay until he could check the defendant's record to present to the court.

Aged City Man Ordered Held For Observation

Homer Gamble, 74, of 675 Lincoln Ave., was ordered confined to the Lima State Hospital for observation when Judge Raymond S. Buzzard ruled on his case Thursday in Common Pleas Court.

He was indicted by the recalled April Grand Jury last July for taking undue liberties with minors and waived a jury trial, being convicted by Judge Buzzard.

Sentence will be held up until the hospital report is received.

60,000 Ohio Vets 25 To 44 Seek Jobs

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio State Employment Service says nearly 60,000 veterans 25 to 44 years old were looking for jobs in Ohio at the close of 1960.

The service, reporting on a recent survey, said the jobless veterans comprised 5 per cent of Ohio's 1.25 million veterans, and that only about one in four of those without work had high school educations. About 2 per cent had completed college.

Drivers Are Uninjured In Substation Collision

Neither driver was injured in a collision of two cars on Substation Rd. at the intersection of Coolidge Ave. Thursday, the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

A car driven by Virgil Wright, 33, of Substation made a turn into the path of a sedan operated by Charles Davis Jr., 37, of 4th Ave., LaCroft, officers said.

Additional Thoughts On Planning

The importance of progressive planning to a community can't be repeated too often. The keynote speech during the recent second annual Conference on Community Development at Ohio State University held many points pertinent to East Liverpool and other municipalities faced with similar problems.

DENNIS O'HARROW, executive director of the American Society of Planning Officials, was the speaker. Key excerpts from his address follow:

"Don't be afraid of walking into the future. Design your community for the facts of life, for change, advance, growth, improvement. Design your community for tomorrow—because the only thing deader than yesterday's newspaper is yesterday's city. Recognize this is an age of change—change in technology, change in human beings, and change in living standards.

"The first rule to assure realism in community development is not to kid yourself. Don't try to pretend that your community has unique advantages when those same advantages are shared by 5,000 other communities. The danger arising from such a fairy tale approach is that not only will the community promoters look like naive school boys, but also the community will be so hypnotized by its own Madison Ave. palaver it will fail to do the things that it can do to improve itself.

"Secondly, you must have a realistic approach to money, to the cost of doing the things necessary for community development. "Expenditures of government, all governments, are on a long term rise. Government expenditures are financed through taxation. This rise comes because of an increasing population and an increasing demand by people for more and better and different services.

"Scale down grand national and state programs of governmental expenditure to your own community. You whistle in the dark if you do not face that situation realistically also. If you want the kind of community, I think you want, it will cost you more in taxes—more money for schools and teachers' salaries, more money for streets and street cleaners' wages, more money for parks, libraries, sewers, fire protection and police, health services and dog catchers.

"LET'S BE HONEST about this. There is precious little in this world that is free. I am sure that you know that federal and state grants to communities are not really free. You pay for them in taxes on income and liquor and tobacco and gasoline, etc.

"However, only part of the cost for community development will come from governmental expenditures. The larger part must come from private sources. Perhaps I should drop the word cost and substitute investment. The people of the community must be able to invest and more important, must be willing to invest private money. Community development requires great quantities of faith on the part of the citizen. Pretty reports and pious wishes are poor substitutes for dollars and cents faith.

"Industrial location specialists do not look for low taxes alone; after all, local taxes are only a small part of the cost of doing business. They look for a city which has first-class facilities for living. The kind of city that is equipped and willing to maintain and continually improve its facilities.

"The community that plans only for today or for yesterday is the community that already has started backwards."

Mr. O'Harrow's words contain plenty of food for thought for residents of East Liverpool.

'Them That Has—Wants'

If you weren't asked what you thought of the first presidential press conference ever to be broadcast "live," you must not have talked with anyone else who saw this historic occasion Wednesday night.

"Historic occasion" isn't putting it too strongly, for this reason:

It was a break-through in communications in a representative democracy.

There's nothing novel about using radio and television to go directly to the people. Mussolini and Hitler were masters at that. Franklin Roosevelt did it. All public figures do it these days.

The break-through was the question-and-answer method, with the public listening in, so it could evaluate both the question and answer.

If President Kennedy and his staff can keep this idea going, they can give Americans more information about public affairs than ever has been available before.

SHOULDN'T newspapers be scared of something that puts them in the position of rehashing information television watchers already possess?

No. Newspapers have everything to gain by adding television to the means of communication about government.

The more information people have, the more they want.

To adapt the apt saying about "them that has — gits," this is a case of "them that has — wants."

It is like education. The more education people have, the more education they want. The only people who find bliss in ignorance are the ignorant.

The handwriting was on the television screen in 1956 when, for the first time, a few newspapermen who had been going to the national political conventions stayed home and let television reporters do their legwork.

They said they covered more ground than they used to cover on their own initiative. That made sense; they had only one pair of legs and television was a centipede.

IN THE TELEVISED presidential press conference, the viewer and listener at home saw and heard more than the White House correspondents in the auditorium.

There never was more next-day interest in a presidential press conference than there was in this one—the first of its kind. People were talking about it who never had given two whoops about press conferences before. They talked about the things discussed, about President Kennedy's self-assurance and command of the language and his own mind. They talked about what they thought about what the President thought; that is the essence of self-government.

To use a word that is a favorite with the new President, they were "concerned." Some were discovering what a great deal there is to be concerned about. Some were even discovering one of the hardest things there is to know in this world, that ignorance is not blissful.

"Them that has — wants."

THE USE of television to bring the White House closer to the people is all to the good. Newspaper circulation kept going up faster than ever after the impact of radio in the '30s. Television is tougher competition than radio, but newspaper circulations are still climbing.

And in the area of information about government, newspapers welcome all the help they can get. They have been carrying the load alone for all but the last few years. They have been doing everything they could think of to make the American people want to be informed. With the help of television, radio, the schools, magazines and newspapers, the United States may hang on for a few hundred more years as the "last best hope of mankind," as Abraham Lincoln once called it.

There's enough to keep everybody busy.

By H. I. Phillips

The Once Over

The U.S. Supreme Court was split so wide in its decision on the right of state and city to require preview of movie before public showing that the court seemed to be putting on a double feature. Both could be classified as "Westerns" entitled "Confusion At 5 to 4 Corral" and "The Great Divide."

Five members, Justices Tom Clark, Felix Frankfurter, John Harlan, Charles Whitaker and Stewart Potter galloped down the street, guns blazing while Justices Hugo Black, Bill Douglas and Bill Brennan, Jr., led by Chief Justice Earl Warren tried to cut them off at the pass, using carbines, lassoes and the Wyatt Earp cold stare.

It left the public audience munching its buttered popcorn and clamoring for something like a Mickey Mouse film which it could understand in spots.

The issue was whether a state or city movie censorship board has the right to review an allegedly "evil film" before permitting it to be shown. Five to four decision was victory for states and cities but it was a photo finish. Justices were so hostile to one another in opinions that the scene constituted the best cowboy picture since "High Noon."

With Chief Justice Warren leading one group and Tom Clark the other, movie fans wished Gary Cooper had been on the bench to give a hand to the Warren, Douglas, Black and Brennan group or to Justices Frankfurter, Potter, Harlan, Whitaker and Clark.

IN SUDDEN SETTLEMENT of railroad tieup because of harbor strike it seems to us that Gov. Rockefeller tripled, Wagner struck out and Goldberg singled but was credited with crossing the plate ahead of Rocky.

Adlai Stevenson has taken a seat in the United Nations and if Khrushchev waves shoe there, Adlai can top him by waving the shoe with a hole in the sole that featured one of his presidential campaigns. Mr. Stevenson has a suite at the Waldorf. With his rep as a wit and applause-getter, he should be offered a spot with the Waldorf floor show.

The first paper dollars signed by C. Douglas Dillon and Elizabeth R. Smith are out. The new bills are not streamlined, but will go faster than any previous issues. (They're not marked "His and Liz.")

Since President Kennedy emphasizes a "start anew," has anybody called it the "ANEW" deal?

John M. Bailey, the new Democratic National Chairman, is a Connecticut boy who made good in the country, came up in the rough-and-tumble school of politics and was once a police court judge.

TV is giving Civil War the brushoff despite centennial year. Program sponsors fear offending cash customers in North and South. Some timid advertisers would ignore Grant or Lee episodes for fear they would hurt sales of cigarettes, chewing gum, beer, etc. It is denied, however, that one cigarette company barred Civil War program because it thought "It's what's up front that counts," might offend North if the story portrayed Lee victory through getting forces to battle line first and anger South if program showed Grant there, "fastest with the mostest."

The Federal Communications Commission has authorized first trial of pay TV in Hartford, Conn. Why Hartford? Is there a belief people there are less tight with dough than other Nutmeg State cities. Since the TV fans will have to pay, why not hold the tests in Silver Mine or Tariffville?

Russia in a second Park Ave. building of its own may cause many to change the avenue's name to "BARK."

Japanese Plan Trade With Castro

By Victor Riesel

The Japanese plan to hit us off our East Coast and reawaken memories of that morning off the West Coast. This time they plan to dump into Cuba tons of civilian material vitally needed by the Fidelists. Thus the Nipponese will bolster our newest enemy with the products of an industry we revived for the men of Tokyo after they ceased being the enemy.

For several months now the Japanese government has been bargaining with Dr. Mario Alzugaray, Havana's ambassador to Tokyo. He has given the Nipponese officials a list of Castro's needs.

As international merchants, they have given Dr. Alzugaray their prices. On Jan. 4 he flew to Cuba for instructions. Now our friends in the Orient await his return with definite orders and cash deposits in hand.

Yet, while dealing with Cuba, the gentlemen of Japan claim our friendship and say we betray such fraternity by seeking to cut down the hundreds of millions of dollars worth of starvation wage goods they're dumping into the United States.

THESE VERY SAME Japanese merchants have called on their federal Ministry of International Trade and Industry to help them stave off angry anti-Japanese sentiment spreading through our own labor and management circles.

The Japanese will have to do more than protest. This they would know if they had had observers at last Wednesday's emergency session in Washington of the "National Committee of Industry, Agriculture and Labor on Import-Export Policy."

In this group are 15 unions ranging from Jack Potosky's amalgamated clothing workers to carpenters, glass workers, electrical workers and even lumberjacks.

Why are they meeting? Well, glare at a statistic or two: There were 27 million cotton shirts dumped into the U.S. by low wage countries last year. Virtually all of these came from Japan and Hong Kong.

During '60 almost 30 million knit shirts poured into the U.S. from the same lands which pay a munificent 10 cents an hour to their workers.

APPARENTLY a lot more of us than realize it are wandering around in Japanese and Hong Kong trousers. These production centers sold some 19 million pairs of pants in the U.S. last year.

Here is a figure on just plain cotton fabric which might startle you.

The Japanese sold 90 million square yards of cotton goods in '60. But this was lower by 12 million square yards than in '59. Why? Because it's beginning to cost the Japanese more to produce cotton fabric. So they have to sell it at a higher price in the U.S.

Right here you have the reasoning behind one plan to save U.S. industry which was proposed to the Washington emergency meeting by Frank Darling. He is leader of Chicago Local 1031, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

His union followers, makers of "radionic" part and equipment, have lost some 15,000 jobs in a year. Here is what Darling suggests in order to force the Nip-ponese to pay a living wage to their people or quit selling in the U.S.

EVERY JAPANESE exporter should pay duty at our customs office equal to the difference between the wages he pays in his country and the legal minimum here.

When the Japanese corporations raise wages and pay pensions, welfare and other fringe benefits equal to our basic minimums, then the men of Tokyo should be permitted to sell freely in the U.S.

Perhaps this sounds harsh. But it is harsher to be a cutter of pants or a sewer of shirts and suddenly find after many years that the pay envelope has five dollars less in it because of Japanese competition.

In the clothing industry, for example, the average work week in 1959 was 37.4 hours. But last year it was 34.6—a loss of more than three hours a week for those who are working. But what of the jobs?

Then we find ourselves betrayed by our friends across the seas who seek a profit even if it means taking Castro's grim trade.

The gentlemen of Japan are not going to win friends and influence the American people that way.

Kennedy And Eisenhower

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

President Kennedy was much more sure of himself at his first presidential news conference than President Eisenhower was at his first conference after becoming president eight years ago.

It was expected: After 14 years in Congress Kennedy was better informed on government details than Eisenhower was when he moved into the White House after his long Army career.

Eisenhower was tense and faltered in his answers at his first conference. Wednesday night Kennedy didn't appear tense. But he was hardly lighthearted. And, like Eisenhower, he made some bobbles.

Actually, Kennedy had more reason to be tense than Eisenhower had at his first White House news session.

Kennedy was being watched from coast to coast on live TV and his words, bobbles and all, once said couldn't be tidied up. Eisenhower's first news conference transcript of questions and answers, after a going over by his aides, was released without direct quotes. So the faltering did not show up in the record.

Still, there was a double lack of precision in Kennedy:

1. He was a little vague on some answers, a little generalized. This is understandable since he is still in the process of whipping together programs which, if completed by Wednesday night, would have enabled him to answer better.

His precision in this area should improve steadily as his programs and policies take shape and are spelled out in detail for Congress and the country.

2. There was a certain imprecision in the way he answered. Instead of being steadily terse and pointed and then stopping, he showed a habit of repeating himself.

Whether this will change as he holds more conferences depends on his own capacity for self-criticism and the suggestions of his aides.

Whether it is an integral part of his character, or the start of a deliberate policy which he will pursue, Kennedy avoided the appearance of sensationalism even when stating the sensational.

For example: The outstanding news at his conference was the announcement that the Russians have released two members of the American RB47 plane who had been captured last July.

The Russians had refused to release them for the Eisenhower administration. Their doing so at the start of Kennedy's administration was a concession toward creation of renewed good will between this country and Russia.

Since news of this was to prove to be the highlight of his news conference, Kennedy could have electrified the reporters by announcing it the moment he appeared.

Instead, he said he had three announcements to make and his news on the fliers was No. 3.

Outwardly it would seem — if what he said can be taken as the policy he will pursue—he intends to follow Eisenhower's policy of avoiding any interference with Congress.

Eisenhower carried this to such an extreme that some of his proposals got massacred because he didn't fight for them.

One of the worst bottlenecks in Congress is a small group—called the Rules Committee of the House—in which conservative Democrats and Republicans, by teaming up, have prevented important legislation from going to the full House for a vote.

More liberal Democrats, headed by Speaker Sam Rayburn, who is Kennedy's chief lieutenant in the House, want to add a few more members to the Rules Committee to break the conservatives' strangle hold.

This is being fought out now. But Kennedy told his listeners Wednesday night he doesn't want to interfere. If he actually tries to make this a permanent policy in dealing with Congress his programs will get massacred, too.

But it's this writer's guess Kennedy won't keep hands off. He was in Congress too long not to know how strings are pulled. He can say, "Look, mom, no hands," as proof he's not butting into the business of Congress.

But you can bet the people around him will be. In short, Kennedy is still in the process of growing into the presidency. There probably will be some noticeable changes before the year is out.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — The fire loss in West Virginia during 1930 showed an increase of 5 per cent over 1929.

With a total of $338 collected, the Chester health seal drive went over the top.

Joseph Smith qualified as master counselor of Harding Chapter Order of DeMolay.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Free transportation for about 40 elementary school children in the Irish Ridge district was launched on a trial basis.

Wellsville Boy Scouts took a four-mile emergency bird feeding hike through parts of Madison and Yellow Creek Township.

TEN YEARS AGO — East Liverpool came through an icy week-end with a lower than usual traffic accident toll.

Some $1,222 was contributed to the March of Dimes by East Liverpool School children.

TV Press Conference

By David Lawrence

Politicking Seen Danger In 'Live' Sessions

Off-the-cuff government through impromptu answers at press conferences, with all its risks to the conduct of international affairs, has been frequently condemned during preceding administrations as an undesirable practice. The press conference idea nevertheless has been steadily enlarged to the point that President Kennedy now conducts sessions with the newsmen as a show on live television.

If the President of the United States has something important to say to the world, there's no reason why he shouldn't take time to formulate a carefully worded statement which has been previously submitted to his secretary of state and his other advisers, including perhaps key members of Congress.

In a press conference, a president is questioned and must answer on the spot. Time and again the words instantly transmitted abroad have caused embarrassing situations.

Other governments, especially our allies, wonder sometimes why they were not, as a matter of courtesy, told ahead of time about such pronouncements, so that they could offer their own suggestions and perhaps modifications. America cannot play the game alone—it is dependent on the good will of the Western Allies.

There are signs that President Kennedy would like to modify some of the past practices in diplomacy. Thus, for instance, the word has already gone forth that the new administration doesn't like summit conferences but wants to talk to the Soviet government through the ambassadors at Moscow and Washington.

It has also been intimated that the State Department will not give out comments to the press on the exchange of views and that there will be no "leaks." The point has been made that only in this way can progress be made.

The same rule might well apply to the answering of questions on foreign policy at a press conference.

No president is capable of doing as good a job in stating his views off-the-cuff as he could if he had time to write his answers and consult his advisers. After all, the stakes are too high for any risks to be taken.

On domestic matters, the case is different. A president can cause embarrassment to his official family if he states a view divergent from one of his Cabinet officers but the damage, as a rule can be quickly reduced by later clarifications.

THE MOST significant change that President Kennedy has made thus far in relation to the press conferences is to permit them to be televised and broadcast instantly as they happen.

Under the preceding administration, press conferences were held in the morning hours and tape recordings were made. When necessary, however, certain parts or sentences were eliminated from the transcripts for the press and from the tapes for later use by radio and TV.

With the press conference going on the air as it takes place, there is, of course, no opportunity for any editing or revision.

Mr. Kennedy showed in his first conference that he has confidence in his own ability to say exactly what he wants to say and that he is apparently not disturbed by the chances of serious error. It was on the whole a creditable performance.

Eventually Mr. Kennedy may refuse to discuss any of the delicate questions and his answers will not be satisfying to the reporters present.

The press has maintained that there is a right to know almost everything that goes on inside the government and in recent years a steady campaign against the Eisenhower administration was waged by sections of the press which seemed to some extent to be motivated by desires to get partisan advantage out of the refusal of an administration to give out at a press conference all the secrets of the government.

It will be interesting to see how vigorous the opponents of the last administration now will be in demanding the right to know what Mr. Kennedy may refuse to divulge.

PRESS CONFERENCES used to be conducted under a rule that the president could not be quoted but the paraphrases that were permitted varied so widely that they caused misunderstandings.

If the president talks with the press, there ought to be direct quotation but to make a television show out of a presidential press conference may give it an artificiality and a theatrical character which will open the door to demagoguery. It becomes a form of political campaigning and naturally, if the Republicans are assailed in such press conferences, they will demand equal time to present their rebuttals.

Former Vice President Nixon is the titular leader of the Republican party and the natural choice to answer any attacks made in presidential press conferences. If he declines, then Republican leaders in the Senate or House would be logical for the task.

The American people would prefer a rest from politics and political campaigning and it will be up to President Kennedy to make his press conferences informative and objective without using them as a forum for political debate in which the side attacked is not present to give its version of the argument.

Unaccustomed As We Are

By Truman Twill

A few nights ago, this lady who goes out of her way to coax me into a state of intellectual grace invited me to be her guest at one of the dinner-speaker horrors everybody goes to during the winter.

It was the customary setup—a dinner, to be followed by an out-of-town speaker who would bring the by-the-sudden dinner an inspirational message that would hit them with the same impact as a second helping of half-melted dessert.

I declined. "I would not go to hear Demosthenes crack jokes with Bob Hope," I said, in effect. "Your thoughtfulness is appreciated, but as my life span is frittered away day by day, I have less tolerance for public speaking."

"I consider it to be a social faucet that has been allowed to drip, drip, drip because no one has the gumption either to turn off light, or if that cannot be done, put on a new washer."

"Moreover, being full of despair about man's ability to look out for himself, I am ready in some circumstances to turn off public speaking all the way back to the main valve."

"You have forgotten, if you ever knew it, but this is one of two social stenches I have struggled to overcome. The other one has been replaced from time to time. It once was picnics, which finally ceased to be hardship occasions and became civilized, thanks to better equipment."

"Then for a while it was Mussolini, who was brought to a tardy but fitting termination by an Italian mob. For some time, it was a certain politician and people who believed everything he said, which was a tissue of lies. Currently, it is the misuse of the public streets I own in part by chiselers who store their automobiles thereon while decent citizens put their automobiles away at their own expense."

"But whereas other things have their season and pass away, public speaking drones on and on and on. It is not enough to come together in friendship over a non-home-cooked meal and to laugh and be jolly with one's fellow men. There must be the anti-climax of a speech by someone who, if he is articulate enough to perform for pay is too expensive for the outfits you are cozy with and who otherwise is speaking from fright or from vanity and in either case isn't worth the creases that will be put into your clothing while you sweat out his performance.

"It all goes back to a time when people had no way to communicate, except by word of mouth on direct contact. Every speaker was a wise man, a preceptor, or a messenger. Primitive people who lived too much to themselves were bemused by the spectacle of a fellow human being who had so much to say he could keep his trap open for an hour at a time."

"They would listen to anyone who would talk, in the same way as friends and relatives once listened to little kids play the piano or the violin."

"But a new day is here. If a human has something to say today, he can record it. He can write it. He can take a picture of it. But he does not have to make a speech about it to people who wish they were somewhere else. Not even for money, he doesn't have to do this, because if he had pride in the human race he would refuse to be a party to such nonsense as public speaking."

"Any questions?"

There is no difference in sweetness between pure cane sugar and pure beet sugar. Completely refined sugar made from sugar cane and completely refined sugar made from sugar beets are identical in chemical composition. Only in the unrefined product is there any difference.

Development Group To Meet

ROCHESTER — The Beaver County Conference on Community Development made plans for an organization meeting Feb. 9 at 8 p. m. in the Courthouse at Beaver after an exploratory meeting Thursday night here. Some 95 attended.

Arranged by Beaver County commissioners, the meeting was in charge of Commissioner James Ross while Commissioner Sam McCune reviewed activities to date and Controller James Tress summarized the objectives of the conference.

The purpose of the conference is to form an organization of leading citizens who have a common interest in the future of Beaver County. The backbone of the organization would be a sponsoring committee composed of leaders of industry, labor, commerce, finance, education, government, professions and civic affairs.

Edward Magee, executive director of the Allegheny Conference, outlined the procedures and L. W. Pribble of Michael Baker Jr., Inc., outlined the agenda and budget.

LISBON — Heavy snow caused the Wayne Township Grange to cancel its regular meeting scheduled Thursday night. The next meeting will be Thursday, Feb. 9.

Patrolman Screens Film

100 At Driving Club's Parent Event

Over 100 members of East Liverpool High School's Driving Club and their parents were present for a meeting Thursday night in Memorial Auditorium when two films were screened.

"Signal 30," a film illustrating the tragic results of reckless operation and faulty driving habits, was screened by Patrolman Jim Wattleworth of the Lisbon Detachment of the Ohio State Highway Patrol.

The group also saw a film which demonstrated the operation of a "Drive-O-Training" machine.

The club has voted to raise funds for purchasing some particular type of the automatic driver training machines. Special equipment is used to time reactions of the operator in simulating operation of a real auto. It may be used indoors.

Entertainment was presented by the "Campus Kids" and the "East Liverpool Denesels," the latter a group of students. The top 40 records were played for the students.

Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be Wednesday during school hours.

says, and conditions in that section are mostly normal.

There was minor consolation in the storm — the fall was less than forecast and motorists had ample warning. Up to 5 inches had been expected. The storm began locally about 11 a. m. and tapered to flurries last night.

Snow accumulations over Ohio were not as heavy as expected. Two inches were added at Youngstown, Cincinnati and Columbus while Toledo, Dayton, and Akron received one inch. Cloudiness held temperatures above zero during the night and snow flurries continued over most of the state.

Early this morning, Columbus had 10 degrees, Cleveland 7, Mansfield 9, Cincinnati 12 and Marietta 13.

The mercury fell to 10 above at Dam 7 at Midland and with tonight's near zero cold, the snow accumulation will be preserved through the weekend. Only flurries are forecast.

Downtown had a low of 12 above and Edwin Copeland's weather station at Millport recorded 6 above. It was 12 at midnight at the dam and the high yesterday afternoon was a frigid 14. Today's high range will be 12 to 16.

The five-day forecast indicates temperatures will average 15 to 20 degrees below normal, thus promising no immediate relief from the cold wave. There will be slight moderation Saturday and Sunday and turning colder Monday or Tuesday.

Meanwhile, the ice sheet on the Ohio River was thickening with each night's cold and it was estimated at 2 to 3 inches thick from shore-to-shore. It is the first time the river has been frozen over for three years or so. Towboats are keeping the channel open, however.

Storm Deals Crippling Blows To South, East

By The Associated Press

A vast snow and ice storm dealt crippling blows to the South and East today as winter's longest stretch of severe weather held fast over most of the eastern two-thirds of the nation.

The wide belt of snow extended from northern North Carolina into New England and westward into Illinois and the Great Lakes region.

The storm broke out in Texas and Oklahoma earlier this week and spread snow, sleet and icy rain across most of the Southland before speeding northward along the Atlantic Coast. Only Florida escaped the cold, wet weather.

The violent weather, which closed hundreds of schools, curtailed highway and air travel and disrupted electric service, was blamed for at least 48 deaths. Most of the fatalities were in traffic accidents on ice-slicked highways, exposure and heart attacks.

Texas alone counted 17 storm-related deaths. There were 12 in West Virginia; 6 in Indiana; 5 in Louisiana; 3 in Georgia; 2 in South Carolina and 1 each in Tennessee, Oklahoma and Washington, D.C.

Snow depth up to a half foot fell in Maryland, and nearly that amount piled up on top of last week's heavy snow in many areas. The falls, however, were not as heavy as last week's storm which dumped more than 1½ feet of snow in parts of Pennsylvania.

The snow diminished considerably during the night from Pennsylvania northward into New England after an earlier forecast of up to 8 inches in southern New England and the Middle Atlantic States. However, the snow continued during the morning in the Great Lakes region and southeastward into the Ohio Valley and the Middle Atlantic coastal states.

Meanwhile, the frigid weather which has numbed northern sections of the Midwest and Northeast for more than a week showed only slight moderation. Below zero readings again were reported in the northern and central plains and eastward into the upper and middle Mississippi Valley and in northern Maine.

Schools were closed through much of the Southern storm belt Thursday and police closed many roads in the Carolinas, Georgia, Tennessee, Alabama, Arkansas and Virginia. Most schools remained closed in the Washington, D.C., area, hit by a six-inch snowfall, and in 60 of the 97 counties in Virginia.

Four inches of snow fell in New York and some jet flights were diverted from Idlewild Airport to as far away as Montreal.

Gunmen Strike Sour Note At Musical Show

NEW YORK (AP) — Two gunmen struck a cacophonous note at the musical "The Sound of Music" Thursday night by making off with the $8,300 payroll just before curtain time.

The bandits strode into the backstage office at the Lunt-Fontanne Theatre and ordered the manager to hand over the pay envelopes. The gunmen then fled.

The cast was unaware of the holdup and the show went on as usual.

Safes Really Safe

the call into the record and calls the roll of members, the way will be open for the formal motion.

A member will rise and say: "Mr. President, I move that Ordinance No. 31, 1960, passed by this Council on Dec. 29, 1960, and vetoed by the mayor on Jan. 6, 1961, be reconsidered by this Council."

With a second to the motion, the way will be open for remarks by the councilmen. Following remarks, President Charles N. Edwards will ask Clerk Owen Kountz to call the roll for the vote.

IF 5 VOTE "AYE" the ordinance will take effect as if it had been signed by the mayor. State law says a two-thirds vote of Council is required to override the veto. That means 5 of the 7 members must favor the action.

If the veto is overridden, the effective date of the ordinance will be Jan. 27. However, for purposes of tax - paying, it will not affect any payroll period that began prior to today. In essence, the ordinance provides that for persons paid in regular payroll periods the tax will not be collected until the first full pay period that begins after enactment of the legislation.

Council received the vetoed ordinance and the mayor's message of disapproval at its regular meeting Jan. 16. State law says it must wait at least 10 days before taking action to override. So Council set the special meeting for tonight.

IF THE VETO is overridden, Council then will enact a 26-page resolution setting up in great detail the methods of computing and collecting the tax.

If the veto is not overridden, of course, there will be no need for the regulations and the meeting will adjourn.

The tax ordinance originally was passed with a unanimous vote. An informal poll this morning indicated a 4-3 split on the question of overriding, one short of the required number. However, that breakdown could change before Council convenes.

North Katanga Clash Feared Over Lumumba

ELISABETHVILLE, the Congo (AP) — Danger of a clash in North Katanga grew today with a build up of forces supporting and opposing ex-Premier Patrice Lumumba.

U.N. headquarters reported intense activity in the area around Manono where about 2,000 troops of the pro-Lumumba Stanleyville regime are massed.

The U.N. said the Belgian-officered Katanga gendarmerie in Kongolo—about 500 men, including 25 Belgian officers—is being reinforced.

Two Women Arrested In Bank Fraud

FAIRMONT, W. Va. (AP)—A gray-haired spinster and a young mother of two children have been arrested on federal charges stemming from a $224,224.70 shortage at a bank where they both worked.

Held for arraignment today on embezzlement charges were Miss Lucy Fortney, 62, and Jo Ann Stevens, 25, both employees of the Bank of Shinnston (W. Va.) near here. They will appear before U.S. Commissioner L. T. Eddy.

The shortages in the bank's accounts were revealed Thursday, but there was no explanation as to how they were discovered or how long a period of time was involved. However, deposits were insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Wayne C. Hawker, president of the bank, said depositors would face no losses.

Authorities said Miss Fortney was employed by the bank for 28 years, many of them as assistant cashier. Both she and Mrs. Stevens, wife of a coal company employee, have lived all their lives at Shinnston, a town of about 2,500 residents.

Mrs. Stevens was employed for eight years as a bookkeeper.

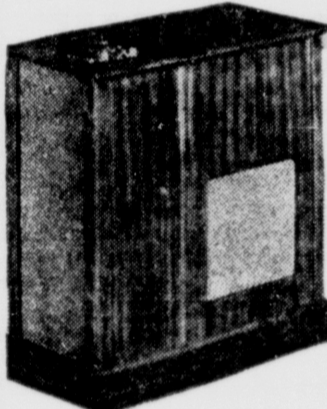

The U.S. President's official guest house is Blair House, which is situated diagonally across the street from the White House.

DiSalle Cabinet Supports, Criticizes Civil Defense

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Civil Defense drew criticism and support at Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's cabinet meeting today.

"It ought to be run by the military on the national level," the governor asserted.

Adj. Gen. Loren G. Windom said state planning is needed to assure continuity of government in event of emergency.

DiSalle replied that there appears to be no satisfactory plan, and that money is being wasted.

His comment stemmed from a suggested budget to finance Civil Defense planning by state departments through June 30 at a cost of $241,796.

The report from Finance Director James H. Maloon said the federal government would put up half of the money. He said it would be up to the various departments to find a total of $157,168 for their share.

Several months ago the governor directed department heads to designate an employee to plan for Civil Defense measures. Only a few have complied, he said.

DiSalle indicated with apparent reluctance that an attempt at co-operation would be made.

He expressed interest in setting up a communications room in the state capital basement, tying telephone lines into the state highway communications system and possibly others.

Windom estimated the cost at less than $200 and described the Statehouse as about as bomb-proof as any building.

DiSalle also took note of difficulties in explaining state operations in brief form for publication. He offered a prize to the director who could "boil down" such an explanation in two pages of double-spaced typing.

"I doubt that anyone here can explain his own department in that space," he added with a laugh.

A letter from D. K. Woodman, editor of the Mansfield News-Journal, touched off the discussion of brevity in state press releases.

Woodman said a 68-page report he received on the progress of capital improvements throughout the state was not in the form that the public would read.

He suggested non-technical news releases of not more than two pages, telling people what they are getting for their added taxes.

School Reunion

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—About a year after the Glen McCaslin family moved here from Kent, Ohio, their daughter, Janet, came home from second grade and reported she was seated next to Bobby Stinson whose family had lived across the street from the McCaslins in Kent.

Sweet Tenants

CENTREVILLE, Ala. (AP) — It was a honey of a new house that the William G. Henderson family moved into. But Henderson didn't like the honey running down the walls. So, he called workmen who tore out part of a 16-foot ceiling and cleared away a colony of bees.

The series of Civil War clashes known as the Battle of Spotsylvania Court House were fought night and day over a period of two weeks.

Council Keeps 2 In Midland Borough Posts

Midland Council Thursday night reappointed two in Borough position and asked the police department to enforce an ordinance requiring residents to clear their walks of snow.

Leslie B. Roach was reappointed to the Municipal Authority on a motion by Councilman Lester Trainer. A barber, Roach is also a member of the Board of Education and was president last year.

Crum Dimeff, a grocer, was reappointed to the Planning Commission on a motion by Councilman Raymond Presutti. Dimeff also served on the Municipal Authority. Terms of both are five years.

Councilman Harvey Spencer brought up the matter of snowy sidewalks. Police Chief Ed Stef was asked to check with service stations that have not cleaned their walks. It was pointed out that some apartment house owners, lot owners and residents on the main street and back streets have not been cleaning their walks.

Councilman Trainer asked Spencer, fire committee chairman, to relay congratulations to the volunteer department on its "fine work" at the $12,000 fire early Wednesday morning on Midland Ave. in sub-zero weather.

Spencer also reminded councilmen that the Civil Defense is active again in the borough and is sponsoring a wrestling match Feb. 11 in the high school old gymnasium to raise funds for projects. Daniel Orlando is unit director.

The meeting wasn't without humor. Rocco Stevenson, dog warden, reported to Council that he has been receiving more calls concerning cats than dogs. He wanted to know what he should do.

Councilman Steve Germusa, president, replied that he was appointed as an animal custodian to take care of matters concerning dogs, cats and any other animals. Stevenson said, "You mean, Mr. Germusa, I have to go after cats, too?"

Outstanding bills were ordered paid.

Father, Son Recover In Fatal Fumes Case

WELLSBURG — A Wellsburg father and son remain hospitalized today in Weirton recovering from the effects of carbon monoxide poisoning which caused the death of Mrs. Eva Ann Berkheimer, 47, Thursday morning.

Her husband, Phillip, 48, is listed in "satisfactory" condition today at Weirton General Hospital, while the son, Virgil, 13, is "a little better today" after being listed as critical yesterday.

A faulty flue on a furnace was blamed for the death of the mother, who was overcome by the carbon monoxide fumes in their home.

Receipt Books Ordered For Clerk Of Courts

LISBON — Columbiana County commissioners Thursday awarded a contract to the Columbus Blank Book Co. to furnish 25 books of receipts for notation of liens for the clerk of courts office at a cost of $145. This was the only bid.

The commissioners agreed to attend a sewer district meeting at Alliance Wednesday at the request of Stark County commissioners. Mahoning County commissioners have also been invited, along with representatives of Floyd Brown Associates, engineering firm.

The commissioners will meet Monday from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

New Junta To Respect Treaty Obligations

SAN SALVADOR, El Salvador (AP)—El Salvador's new junta has pledged to respect the nation's treaty obligations and lead it back to "authentic democracy."

The five-man civil-military directorate, set up after the armed forces seized control, issued a communique Thursday saying it took over the government to stop a violent clash between Communists and the extreme right.

Five persons were killed and 11 wounded in the coup Tuesday, the new government said.

Auxiliary Police Name 2 Salineville Officers

SALINEVILLE — Police Chief Cleo Mellott was named secretary and Deputy Marshal Tom Wilson treasurer at a meeting of the auxiliary police Thursday night.

Election of a captain and lieutenant was postponed until next Thursday because all members were not present. A report was given on a public dinner sponsored Tuesday night by the unit.

A savings account was authorized with the Citizens Banking Co.

4 Jailed On Checks

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Two men and two women, one of them a paralytic, have been jailed by Montgomery County authorities for alleged passing of forged checks in Dayton stores. Police Sgt. Harlan Grooms identified those held as Barbara Gardner, 22; James Linville, 32; Wayne Naves, 21; and Adeena Whitt, 32-year-old divorcee who has been paralyzed from the waist down since being shot accidentally in a tavern here four years ago.

Sales At Ohio's Liquor Stores 3rd Highest In History

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Sale of spirituous liquor in state stores and agencies in 1960 were the third highest in the 28-year history of the Ohio Department of Liquor Control, Director Richard C. Crouch reported today. Only 1957 and 1959 sales were higher.

Crouch said that while sales were not the highest, 1960 revenues will be greater than in any previous year. They will exceed 1959 by more than $4.5 million.

This larger revenue he attributed to the fact that the 10 percent price increase put in effect on liquor on April 1, 1959, boosted returns through all of 1960. In addition, the retail sales tax in effect only six months of 1959, was in effect throughout 1960.

The year-end reports show sales amounted to $219,948,359 in 1960, dropping $870,865 under the 1959 total of $220,819,224.

Bond Of Youngstown Man Will Be Forfeited

LISBON — Entries are being prepared to forfeit the $3,000 appearance bond of Jerald Risner, 30, of Youngstown, according to Prosecutor G. William Brokaw.

Risner was indicted by the January Grand Jury on a charge of forgery after he signed an East Liverpool woman's name on a promissory note in the sale of a sewing machine and then discounting her note at a lending agency.

Risner failed to appear at arraignment but his attorney said he was looking for work and that he wasn't served with the indictment. The attorney later called and said he and Risner would be in court Tuesday but neither has appeared.

Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp ordered the prosecutor to begin forfeiture proceedings.

45 District Students To Attend Drama Clinic

Some 45 Beaver Local and East Liverpool High School students will attend the annual drama clinic Saturday at Kent State University.

Thirty-five members of the Beaver Local Masquers Club will make the trip by bus, accompanied by Harry West, faculty adviser.

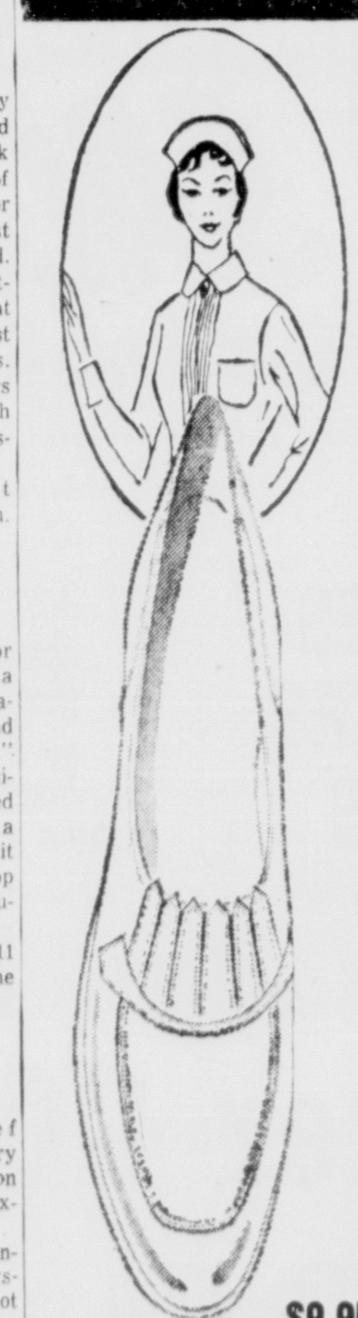

Ten members of the Thespians Club from ELHS will travel by private car. Keith Langdon, club adviser, will accompany the group.

Shawnee Boy Scout Roundtable Scheduled

LISBON — The Shawnee District Boy Scout Roundtable will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Christian Church in Salem.

Quarterlies will be distributed and Boy Scout Week Feb. 7-13 will be discussed. Troop 5 will present a special theme for February.

Films of the Shawnee Polar Bear camp held last weekend at Camp McKinley will be shown.

Health Board Told Of Tests

The tuberculosis testing program adopted by Columbiana County physicians was outlined by Dr. Gustav Peller when the Wellsville Board of Health met Thursday night in City Hall.

Dr. Peller, city health commissioner, said the testing program will include the patch test for all first, fifth and eighth graders in the county, and the Mantoux test for seniors.

If any positive reactions occur, the County Board of Health will make further investigation, Dr. Peller said.

The heat test appears to have been discontinued. The revised TB testing program was adopted when county physicians met Thursday morning in Lisbon.

The board did not reorganize as scheduled because two members were unable to attend. John H. Grafton, chairman, presided. Reports of stray dogs were discussed. The next meeting will be Feb. 23 when the board will reorganize.

Drama Critic Dies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nelson B. Bell, 77, retired drama critic of the Washington Post, died Thursday after he collapsed on a Washington street during a snowstorm. Bell, who has been drama critic for the Post nearly 40 years, was born in Valparaiso, Ind.

Girl Remains In 'Fair' Condition With Burns

Wanda Adams, 4-year-old Salineville area girl burned when her clothes ignited at home Wednesday, remains in "fair" condition today at City Hospital.

Daughter of Mrs. Ethel Adams of Route 644, she suffered burns of the chest, arms, neck and face when her clothing caught fire while she was playing with matches.

Educator Claimed

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. (AP) — Norman L. Stamps, 42, an associate professor of political science at Rutgers University, died Tuesday.

Ohio Conference Tilt To Be Under Pro Rule

GAMBIER, Ohio (AP) — The Wooster-Kenyon Ohio Conference basketball game here Feb. 2 will be played under the professional-style rule which forces a team to attempt to score within 30 seconds or lose the ball.

Coaches Bob Harrison of the Lords and Jim Ewers of the Scots agreed today on the innovation.

Living Costs Hit New High In December

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs edged to another record high in December. It was the 10th increase in 11 months.

The Labor Department reported today its consumers price index rose one-tenth of one per cent between November and December. This put the index at 127.5. The 1947-49 average level is the base of 100 used in the index.

Higher food prices and shelter costs contributed most to the increase between November and December.

The December index was 1.6 per cent above the level a year earlier.

Robert J. Myers, chief of price statistics for the Labor Department, said there is no real price stability in sight, but that the price level for January probably is little changed from December.

This latest living cost increase means a pay raise for over 150,000 workers of one or two cents an hour. They are under labor contracts calling for pay changes in relation to changes in the index.

Among workers due to get an increase are employees of the Douglas and Northrup Aircraft companies, Greyhound Bus Lines and some Western trucking companies.

Higher meat prices accounted for a major part of an advance of two-tenths of 1 per cent in cost averages for all foods. In December, food prices were at their highest for 1960, and close to the high point reached since World War II in July 1958.

Dairy products reached a new high, and costs of bread, fruits and vegetables, and medical care all showed increases.

Nearly all elements of home ownership costs increased in December. This rise was led by higher residential property taxes. Rents also edged up.

Clothing prices declined somewhat due to some year-end clearance sales, but clothing costs still were 1.3 per cent above their level of a year earlier.

Prices of new cars dipped slightly to a level of 3 per cent lower than a year earlier.

The Labor Department also reported that there was practically no change in the after-tax earnings of factory workers. The figure for the worker heading a family of four was $80.35 a week in December. The buying power of factory workers declined as living costs increased relatively more than did earnings.

Neighbors Are Lucky In Promotion Days

LAKEVIEW, Ga. (AP) — The 500 block on Hillsboro Road has taken on an affluent look because of retail merchants' promotions in neighboring Chattahoochee, Tenn., and Rossville, Ga.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Mays of 526 Hillsboro won $1,000 in a drawing conducted during Chattanooga's Downtown Days. And their neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rains of 518 Hillsboro, won $500 in a drawing during Rossville Days.

African Bird Seen On Wisconsin Farm

DOUSMAN, Wis. (AP) — The cattle egret, a bird native to Africa and a rarity in the northern part of the United States, has been sighted on a farm near here.

Ornithologists said the bird, which eats insects stirred up at the feet of cattle, is moving its habitat slowly northward.

Ancient Forest

MANITOWOC, Wis. (AP) — Excavation of a gravel pit recently uncovered a forest of trees all lying in the same direction. University of Wisconsin scientists, estimating the wood was about 11,000 years old, believe one of the great glaciers that overspread Wisconsin buried the trees.

Main Dish Salads Add Winter Menu Variety

Main dish salads taste especially good for mealtime variety. For such a winter menu a pair of hearty salads would fill the bill well.

Princess potato and mixed pea are salads that make an interesting and taste-tempting platter duo.

For the something hot on the menu serve bowls of steaming soup.

PRINCESS POTATO SALAD
½ cup mayonnaise
2 tablespoons prepared mustard

1 can (1 lb.) white potatoes
3 hard cooked eggs
¼ cup sliced ripe olives
2 tablespoons sliced green pepper

1 cup thinly sliced celery
1 small onion
Salt, pepper
Salad greens

Combine mayonnaise and mustard; add drained potatoes cut in large cubes. Chill 2 or 3 hours to blend flavors. Add coarsely cut eggs, olives, green pepper, celery and diced onion. Season to taste. Chill. Serve on crisp greens.

MIXED PEA SALAD

½ cup mayonnaise
¼ cup French dressing
1 can (1 lb.) peas
1 cup sliced celery
½ cup diced American cheese
Salt, pepper
Salad greens

Mix mayonnaise and French dressing. Add drained peas and chill several hours, until flavors blend. Mix with celery and cheese. Season to taste. Serve on crisp greens. Six servings.

Candidates

the Knights of Columbus and its 4th Degree Order.

The other new entries are: Alfred J. Smith, Republican, for trustee of public affairs in Lisbon; Charles G. Hallom, Republican, for Third Ward councilman, and James Grappo, Republican, for Second Ward councilman, both in East Palestine.

W. Roy Guy, Republican, for treasurer of Columbiana village; Scott McCormick, Republican, for Salem city solicitor, and R. K. Zimmerman, Republican, for Salem Fourth Ward councilman.

Three others entered the Wellsville Democratic mayoralty race earlier — William Daugherty, Bernard Ference and Donald E. Miller.

Fultz, 53, operates the Blue Top Restaurant on Route 30. A member of the Wellsville Christian Church, he has been chairman of the city Democratic party for five years. He is a member of the Elks and Eagles Lodges, the county executive board of the Democratic party; Masonic Lodge 180 and Eastern Star Chapter 417, both in Wellsville, and the Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite.

Mayor Bert H. Goodballet, who announced Dec. 7 he would run for a second term on the Democratic ticket, officially filed his petition late this morning.

2 Of Lisbon Council To Ask Short Terms

LISBON — Council President Joseph Dornon and Councilman Fred Steele have announced they will be candidates for nomination to "short terms" in the Republican primary May 2.

They indicated they will file for two-year terms, while other members of Council — Mrs. Blanche Neill, Robert Kelm, Raymond Dixon and Clyde Pike — will be candidates for four-year terms.

Heretofore all Council posts have been for two years. The posts of mayor and members of the Board of Public Affairs continue as two-year terms.

The revision in terms is due to legislation approved by the past General Assembly.

Palestine Attorney To Run For Solicitor

EAST PALESTINE — Atty.

James Loshinsky, elected president of the Men's Republican Club Thursday night, announced he will be a candidate for city solicitor in the May 2 primary.

Atty. Loshinsky succeeds James Grappo as president of the club. Others named were Harry Rorbaugh, vice president; Alan Hill, treasurer, and Edward Libert, secretary.

Atty. Loshinsky will face Atty. Jack H. Cohen, incumbent solicitor, who has filed for re-election.

Another race looms for the Third Ward Council seat with the announcement by Charles Hallom of Bacon Ave. he will be a candidate. James Lunch has already announced for the post.

Grappo reported five other GOP candidates are to announce shortly.

Abandoned Infant's Custody Will Be Set

A hearing is scheduled Feb. 9 in Juvenile Court on custody of a baby boy found abandoned inside St. Aloisius Catholic Church Jan. 2.

The day-old infant was discovered in a paper sack at the church by parishioners and was taken to City Hospital where he was released Jan. 9 to the custody of the County Welfare Department.

Technical Explanation Is Given In Brochure

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — An Oklahoma University brochure said: "Technically, the university's new high-speed computer is an asynchronous, parallel, highly flexible, binary research machine capable of performing either fixed-point or floating-point calculations."

And the brochure added: "This explanation is just about as technical as most people care to get."

Irondale Man Cited In Crash

An Irondale motorist was cited on a charge of leaving the scene following one of two traffic mishaps in Wellsville Thursday, police reported.

Thurman Allgood, 28, was charged after his auto struck another operated by Curtis Shanks, 18, of 1016 Riverside Ave.

Police said the mishap occurred at 6:30 p.m. Allgood was scheduled for a hearing today before Mayor William Shoub.

In another mishap at 9:05 p.m., William Catlett received minor injuries when his auto went out of control and struck a railroad tie protecting a fire plug at Aten and Buckeye Aves.

The auto of Catlett, a resident of Salineville R.D. 1, was damaged in the front, police said. He was treated by a physician.

New Cumberland Area Driver Cited In Crash

NEW CUMBERLAND — Richard P. Smith of R.D. 1 was cited on a charge of hazardous driving following a two-car mishap on Ridge Ave. at 2:10 p.m. Thursday.

The charge was filed by Police Chief Jacob Baxter, who said Smith pulled from a driveway into the path of the south-bound car of John W. Crissinger, 29, of 2nd Ave.

Crissinger sounded his horn but was unable to stop in time to avoid crashing into Smith's car, the police chief said.

Smith was scheduled for a hearing Feb. 6 at 7:30 p.m. before Mayor Albert Fucy. Damage was set at $75 to Crissinger's car and about $25 to Smith's.

French Whiffenpoofs

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — A group of foresters from other countries, in a visit to the Yale University campus, went to Mory's, the eating club renowned in the Whiffenpoof Song. They wanted to hear the song, but few spoke English. All spoke French, so each was given a copy of the song in that language.

Health Heads Approve New TB Test Plan

Health commissioners of the various area have agreed on a new program for tuberculosis testing, given preference to two types of tests and relegating the Heaf plan to the background.

The commissioners of Columbiana County Health Districts, including Dr. C. S. Palmer, county health commissioner; Dr. E. G. Kuhlman of East Liverpool, Dr. R. T. Holzbach of Salem and Dr. G. A. Peller of Wellsville, met Thursday with Dr. F. G. Kravec, medical director of the Columbiana County Tuberculosis Control Clinic, to establish a uniform tuberculin testing program for the county schools.

The recommendations, to be performed under the supervision of a physician, follow:

1.—The Vollmer patch test for the students in the first, fifth and eighth grades.

2.—The approved intradermal Mantoux test for the students in the 12th grades.

At present, the unapproved Heaf test is being used as a tuberculin screening test in some of the schools.

The recommendation of the health commissioners is that the positive reactors to this type of a test be given a physical examination and the intradermal Mantoux test by their private physician before being subjected to a chest X-ray.

Crimson Smear Just Juice Of Watermelon

TUSCUMBIA, Ala. (AP) — Marshall James Grigby of Killen, whose car was involved in a traffic accident, was terrified when he saw the other driver's head smeared with crimson.

Grigby quickly called an ambulance, which rushed M. A. Chandler, 81 of Corinth, Miss., to a hospital. He was treated for bruises — and wiped clean of the watermelon which splattered him in the collision.

Deaths and Funerals

Death Claims Ex-Welder, 90

EAST PALESTINE — David A. Ayers, 90, former welder with the Adamson Co., died Thursday night at 8:30 at the Salem City Hospital. He had resided with a daughter, Mrs. Leora Jackson, of New Waterford R.D.

Mr. Ayers, a former city resident and one of the original employees of the Adamson Co., was born Aug. 26, 1870, at Juniata, Pa., a son of David B. and Jemima Martin Ayers.

He was married in 1895 to Anna E. Barr. He was a member of the Methodist Church.

Besides his widow and Mrs. Jackson, he is survived by two other daughters, Mrs. J. Hanes Shertzer of Lancaster, Pa., and Mrs. Lona Robison of Sharpsville, Pa.; three sons, David E. Ayers of Sharon, Herbert Ayers of Colonia, N. J., and Sylvan Ayers of Greenville, Pa.; and 20 grandchildren and 32 great-grandchildren.

Services will be held Saturday night at 7 at the VanDyke Funeral Home by the Rev. Thomas Hamerton. Friends may call tonight and Saturday afternoon at the funeral home.

The body will be taken Sunday to Parkburg, Pa., where services will be held Monday afternoon with burial there.

Former Weirton

Principal's Rite Set

WEIRTON — Funeral services will be held Saturday at 1 p.m. for John C. Greer, 54, principal of Weir High School for 20 years until his resignation last July to accept the principalship of Memorial High School in Millvale, N. J. Mr. Greer died at 9:20 p.m. Wednesday in West Penn Hospital in Pittsburgh of complications.

He had become ill shortly after he started a new term last September in Millvale and had undergone a series of operations and treatment in West Penn Hospital. He entered the hospital the last time on Jan. 15.

Considered one of West Virginia's outstanding educators, he was active in most community and civic projects and was a leader for many years in state educational groups.

He came to Weirton from Uniontown and taught in Weirton Junior High School 8 years and 20 years in Weir High. He received his bachelor of arts degree at Denison University, a master's degree from Ohio State University, and was working on a doctorate at the University of Pittsburgh.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Geraldine R. Onson Greer; a daughter, Geraldine Greer, a teacher in Shanahan High School, Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and a sister, Mrs. Anna Drushal of Akron.

Friends may call at the Steel & Wolfe Funeral Home in Weirton where services will be held Saturday at 1 p.m. G. Ousley Brown will officiate. Burial will be in the Union Cemetery in Steubenville.

Harry E. Beaumont

Services for Harry Edward Beaumont of Dublin, Ga., a former Hancock County resident, will be held Sunday at 2 p. m. at the Turley Funeral Home in New Cumberland by the Rev. William H. Flurkey, pastor of the Pughtown Presbyterian Church. Burial will be in New Cumberland Cemetery.

He died at the Veterans Hospital at Dublin. His body will arrive in Steubenville tonight at 7:14.

The only survivors are four nieces, Mrs. Betty Davis of St. Clairsville, Mrs. Edith Huber of Akron, Mrs. Esther Herron of Pughtown and Mrs. Imogene Neff of Coraopolis.

Friends may call at the funeral home after noon Saturday.

Paul G. Grove

CARROLLTON — Paul Goodson Grove, serving his second term as village clerk, died suddenly of a heart attack at 11:50 p.m. Thursday at his home. He was 56.

Mr. Grove was born Sept. 2, 1904, in Cleveland, the son of Sherman and Flora Adams Grove. He spent his early life in the Salineville and Mechanicstown areas, was employed as a mechanic for the Blue Ridge Bus Lines in Washington, Pa., for 14 years, and had resided in Carrollton for 19 years.

He was a member of the Corinth Presbyterian Church of Mechanicstown, Masonic Lodge 124, Royal Arch Masons 123 and Order of Eastern Star 215, all of Carrollton. He was married April 21, 1936, to Queenie Elva Hardgrove.

Besides his widow, he is survived by a son, Richard H. Grove of Carrollton; two daughters, Mrs. Donald Hirst of Salineville and Mrs. Donald Lilley of Carrollton; a brother, Harold A. Grove of Salem; a sister, Mrs. Grace Allmon, also of Salem, and eight grandchildren.

Services will be held Sunday at 1 p.m. at the Allmon Funeral Home in Carrollton by the Rev. M. Leroy Antram. Burial will be in Westview Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home from 2:30 to 4:30 and 7 to 9 p.m. Saturday.

CLEVELAND (AP)—Charles R. Vala, 46, of Cleveland, died Thursday night of injuries received in an auto crash six days ago in suburban Bedford.

Chili Con Carne Has A New Savory Flavor

Most people know a lot of ways to handle chopped meat. And most of these people know that making chili is one of the best possible ways.

It is, that is, if the result is the best possible chili.

Here is a new recipe for chili con carne that has a magic ingredient that make it without doubt a chili to cheer.

The difference is two tablespoons of aromatic bitters. It is useful to flavor many dishes and this is one of the best.

1 medium onion chopped
1 clove garlic, finely minced
1/4 lb. butter
1 1/2 lbs. chopped meat
2 1/2 cups canned kidney beans
1 16-oz. can tomatoes
2 tablespoons flour
2 teaspoons salt
1 tablespoon chili powder (more less to taste)

2 tablespoons aromatic bitters
Saute onion and garlic in butter. Add meat and brown. Place in large pan, add kidney beans and liquid, tomatoes and liquid, tomato sauce, flour, salt, chili powder, aromatic bitters and mix well. Simmer over low heat 20 minutes, stirring occasionally. Add water or more tomato sauce if mixture gets too thick. Serves 6.

East-West Talks Seen As Key For Peace In Algeria

ALGIERS (AP)—The success of future peace negotiations between the French and the Algerian rebels hinges on progress in relations between the West and the Communist bloc, highly placed French officials said today.

Contacts between French authorities and the rebel government in exile are "imminent," these officials said, but concrete results are not expected until there is a general relaxation of tension between the two power blocs.

The French government apparently believes that the rebels, who recently increased contacts with the Communist bloc, will be more inclined toward concessions if the intensity of the cold war subsides.

Talks with French officials in Algeria show increasing concern on their part to get negotiations started as soon as possible. The authorities in Algeria have received directives to do their utmost not to spoil the pre-negotiations atmosphere.

Strict orders have been issued to the army to avoid any repression of Moslem demonstrations sweeping the country.

Most Of Open Range Gone, Brands Remain

DENVER — Most of the open range is gone in Colorado, but not the cattle brands.

Orlin Corn, a state brand inspector, says more than 40,000 cattlemen's marks still are registered in Colorado. Corn estimates he has looked at the brands of a million head of cattle in the Denver stockyards since he quit farming in western Colorado and took an inspector's job in 1951.

Water Shortage Feared After Pump Bursts

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP)—The freeze-up and bursting of a pump of a 150,000-gallon stand pipe has threatened a water shortage at the nearby village of Martinsville. The only water available is the undetermined amount in the stand pipe and, with the pump out of order, the only pressure for it is the force of gravity.

Lack of parts for the pump delayed repair work.

Night In Jail Okay, But Several Days, No

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. — A man ejected from a local rescue mission called police and asked to be put in jail for the night. Police told him they could arrest him for vagrancy but he'd have to spend several days in jail. "No thanks," he replied, "I'll just leave town."

Man Fined $100 For Cock Fight

An East Palestine area man was fined for staging a cock fight in one of a number of hearings held before County Judge Herbert Arfman at East Palestine Thursday.

Nelson Gorbey of Route 170, south of East Palestine, was fined $100 and costs and given a 30-day suspended jail sentence for cock fighting. He was cited by Deputy Sheriff Cy Wellman.

Richard Neill, 737 Minerva St., was fined $10 and costs for speeding, Gerald Felton of Wellsville R. D. was fined $10 and costs for operating an unsafe vehicle, and John Borger of Hanoverston was fined $5 and costs for passing at an intersection.

Alfred Cook of Lisbon R. D. 5 was fined $10 and costs for driving left of center, and Harold Fleeson of Lyons Ave., East Palestine, was fined $10 and costs for passing without the assured clear distance.

Rare Roman Helmet Acquired By Museum

TOLEDO, Ohio — An ancient Roman parade helmet, typical of those worn by high-ranking Roman officers during the time of Christ, has been acquired by the Toledo Museum of Art.

The silver helmet is decorated with gold foil and is thought to have come from the eastern provinces of the Roman Empire. Few such helmets are known to exist.

Famed Western Movies Are Known In Germany

TUCSON, Ariz. — University of Arizona Prof. Jean R. Beck returned from a trip to Ravensburg, Germany, and reported the municipal band had a number called "The Arizona March."

Dr. Beck asked how the Germans had selected such a title. The bandmaster answered: "We're quite familiar with Arizona. That's where many of those western movies are filmed."

Birthday Greetings

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — The state of Oklahoma got one birthday card on its 33rd birthday last Nov. 16. It was from Duane Zappa of Minneapolis. Oklahoma Secretary of State Bill Christian was so moved, he wrote a letter to the Minnesota man thanking him for remembering.

Police Raid Jazz Spot And Close Up Minors' Section

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Police raided a well-known San Francisco jazz spot Thursday night and closed a special section for minors where liquor is not served.

The Black Hawk, featuring Cal Tjader and his quintet, had been under police scrutiny because of Mayor George Christopher's objection to "children in saloons." Policemen shoed a dozen youngsters from the special section.

Owners Max and George Weiss and Guido Cacianti say that screening the area from the rest of the club and the serving in the special section of only soft drinks made it legal for persons under 21. The mayor has called this a "technicality."

The owners were cited for admitting underage persons to a night club.

City To Buy New Signal For Klondyke Corner

Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhaver said today the city has placed an order for a new traffic light for the intersection of Harvey Ave. and Putnam St., Klondyke, replacing a signal that was destroyed when struck by a high truck several weeks ago.

The light was ordered from the Kountz Equipment Co. at Pittsburgh, which promised delivery shortly, the director said. The order was placed on the strength of an insurance company's agreement to pay $237 to the city for the loss of the signal which was destroyed, he explained.

The city located the Wheeling trucker responsible for the damage and the insurance company agreed to honor the claim.

Schuck Waits Action On Bid Of Clemency

The Pennsylvania Board of Pardons still is considering the recommendation it will make on a clemency plea by Arthur G. Schuck, who is scheduled to die Monday for the "mistaken identity" slaying of a bartender in 1958.

No decision has been reached by the board, which said it will continue to work today on a recommendation to be made to Gov. David Lawrence, who is opposed to death penalties.

Schuck has shown little concern over his fate. Now imprisoned at the State Correctional Institution in Pittsburgh, the 44-year-old slayer is scheduled to be transferred to Rockview Penitentiary at Bellefonte Monday morning to await electrocution that day.

Schuck was convicted of slaying Vincent J. Quigley, a companion also was killed and a waitress wounded in the shooting in which the state contended Schuck fired a deer rifle at the victims believing one of the men was the husband of a woman he loved.

Boy Injured Sledding 2 Men Hurt At Work

Two men injured at work and a Chester boy hurt sledding were treated this morning at City Hospital.

Keith Pugliano, 33, of 1107 White St., Wellsville, trackman for the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., suffered a laceration of the hand when struck by a metal chip while chiseling a rail.

Alfred Hissam, 34, of Richardson Ave. received a toe injury when a steel flange dropped on his foot at work.

Thomas Govey, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Govey, 323 Indiana Ave., Chester, suffered an ankle injury in a fall from a sled last night.

Armco Corp. Reports Sales, Earnings Down

NEW YORK (AP) — Armco Steel Corp. reported a decline in sales and earnings for 1960.

Earnings totaled $70,459,000, equal to $4.76 per share, on sales of $937,967,000. This compares with $77,064,249, or $5.21 per share, on sales of $1,022,428,742.

Armco produced 4,964,200 tons of steel last year, compared with 5,128,907 tons in 1959, when some of Armco's plants were closed by the steel strike.

Laos Troops Take Village

PHA TANG, Laos (AP)—A battalion of government troops captured Muong Kassy village Thursday night, reducing the sector of the Vientiane-Luang Prabang road still held by pro-Communist rebel forces to about 30 miles.

Forward elements of Col. Oudone Sananikone's column, which is moving north along the road, occupied Muong Kassy after three T6 government fighters made a late afternoon strafing raid.

Reports to Sanaikone's headquarters here, 20 miles south of Muong Kassy, said the government force had no casualties.

The rebels apparently are continuing to retreat north, putting up relatively little resistance, to the rebel-held junction of Pou Khoun. Pou Khoun, 15 miles north of Muong Kassy, was seized by another rebel column that came at it from the rebel-held Plaine des Jarres on the east.

The two government columns now are scheduled to make a combined attack on Pou Khoun from north and south. Some officers say the attack may be made in less than a week. Capture of Pou Khoun is essential for any operation against the Plaine des Jarres since it is the start of the main road that crosses the Plaine to Communist North Viet Nam.

Ohio Conference Agrees

Key To Better Education Is Teacher, Delegates Say

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — If Johnny reports that his teacher was in a real good mood today, the reason may be Ohio's second Statehouse Conference on Education.

Much of the discussion during the six-hour conference Thursday centered on the individual teacher. The 3,600 who attended made it clear they consider the teacher the key to better education in Ohio. Some of their conclusions, as tabulated by data processing machines and a team of newspaper education reporters, reflect this:

An adequate supply of well-qualified teachers is the single most important factor in improving the typical Ohio public school program — 99.9 per cent agreed.

The most important thing district boards of education can do is develop better on-the-job training programs for teachers — 83 per cent.

The State Board of Education should raise standards for licensing to teach — 64.9 per cent.

Revision of teacher training programs by the State Board of Education, requiring higher minimum salaries, and increased salary allowances in the foundation (financial support) programs are desirable — all got 60 per cent agreement.

Other suggestions related to teaching include allowing graduates of liberal arts college courses to teach while they are taking the necessary education courses, higher starting salaries for those graduating in the top 10 per cent of their college class, improvement of tenure laws and weighting salary scales in favor of veteran teachers.

There was disagreement over reciprocity for teachers' certificates. Some felt this might help Ohio get teachers from other states, but others felt it might lower standards.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, as honorary chairman, opened the conference. He expressed the hope that the conference will be the starting point from which a movement will get under way "to alert the state" to a need for increased spending to improve the quality of education.

Most of the delegates are ordinary citizens who do not earn their living in education. Named at local meetings in October and November to attend Thursday's conference, they spent most of the day in 10-member discussion groups.

Many persons feel that the recommendations coming from the first Statehouse Conference on Education in October 1958 had considerable influence on the 1959 legislature. Like the first, Thursday's conference was sponsored by the Ohio School Boards Association at the request of the State Board of Education.

Delegates paid their own way because of the low-budget nature of the program.

Fifty-one per cent favor establishing more branches of existing state universities to meet increased college enrollments, and 40 per cent voted for development of a community college system. But 59 per cent could not agree on financing.

Thirty-five per cent think a new state board should set up standards for such colleges, while 34 would let the existing State Board of Education handle the assignment. On the other hand, 82 per cent favor control at the local level by a board elected from the area served.

Seventy per cent went on record for vesting more authority in the state board in the reorganization of school districts.

Noting the state officials and legislators present, and referring to the general conclusions of the conference, chairman William M. Ware — assistant Sunday editor of the Cleveland Plain Dealer — told delegates:

"Much of the doing will be up to them (the officials), much of the prodding will be up to you."

Cincinnati Loses In Its Effort To Recover $31,250

CINCINNATI (AP)—The city of Cincinnati has lost in an effort to recover $31,250 from Leo Cafferata, its former off-street parking director.

The sum is the amount Cafferata collected as a real estate commission in the sale of a downtown building to the city while he was a city employee.

He has been convicted of violating the conflict of interest statute in the transaction and also of perjury in his testimony before the grand jury which investigated the deal.

He is under seven concurrent 1-10 year prison sentences in the two cases but is free on appeal.

Common Pleas Judge Louis J. Schneider rejected the city's efforts to recover the money on the ground Cafferata was not an officer of the city and that such civil actions can be taken only against officers.

Man, 71, Convicted, Placed On Probation

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — William Collins, 71, of Hamilton, accused of the Christmas Eve slaying of his son-in-law, Jack Tarra, 27, was convicted Thursday by Common Pleas Judge Fred B. Cramer of assault and battery. He had been indicted on a charge of manslaughter.

Judge Cramer placed Collins on probation. Tarra, separated from Collins' daughter, was shot to death as he kicked on the door at the Collins home after telephoning he was coming over to "take the place apart."

Man Arrested In Bank Theft

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Police early today announced the arrest of a 22-year-old Columbus man in the near $10,000 armed robbery of a State Savings Co. office here Monday.

Richard Crayton was picked up Thursday night without a struggle by police and FBI agents as he walked out of his home armed with three guns. Detective Lt. Wayne Morgan reported. Crayton was charged with bank robbery under a federal warrant since the savings company was federally insured.

Morgan divulged the amount of loot taken in the robbery — $9,962.

He said almost $8,000 was recovered and the rest accounted for. Crayton purchased a car, clothing and other things with the remainder, Morgan explained.

The lieutenant said police and the FBI had a joint stakeout at Crayton's house ever since the robbery.

Crayton journeyed to New York City and New Jersey after the holdup, Morgan said. He returned home Thursday night.

He was armed with a .22 automatic, and had a .32 revolver and a .22 Derringer in a briefcase he carried, Morgan said.

Crayton admitted the robbery, Morgan added, and he was held in city prison pending arraignment before a U. S. commissioner.

Morgan said Crayton, a Negro, has no previous police record as far as is known.

General Services Unit Asks Bids On Plant

CHICAGO (AP) — The General Services Administration asked bids Thursday on the former magnesium reduction plant at Luckey, Ohio, 10 miles southeast of Toledo. But the successful bidder on the property, including 17 buildings on 47 acres of land, will have a decontamination job.

The plant has been operated the past eight years by the Brush Beryllium Co., producing beryllium ingots for the Atomic Energy Commission. Bids will be accepted until Feb. 3.

6 Are Injured When Steel Falls

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—One minute it was a peaceful office building. The next, 100 tons of falling steel laid open seven offices with a deafening roar.

Two men, who had been on the second floor, found themselves dazed on the first floor. Four other persons were partly buried under desks, filing cabinets and plaster.

Gusty winds had blown over two huge, prefabricated steel bridge trusses, which had been resting beside the Port of Portland office building.

Only one person was hospitalized when the trusses smashed into the two-story building just after lunch Thursday. She was Nancy Healy, a secretary who suffered broken ribs, cuts and bruises as she was pinned under a desk.

Five other office workers suffered lesser injuries.

Crane Says He'll Wed Los Angeles Divorcee

CLEVELAND (AP) — Stephen Crane, one-time husband of Lana Turner, says he will marry Mrs. Helen Redding DeMaree in Hong Kong late next month.

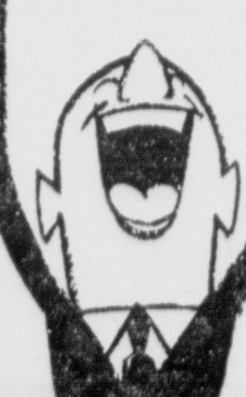

Crane discussed the proposed marriage here Thursday night with Mrs. DeMaree, a divorcee who was born in Lawrence, Kan., but now lives in Los Angeles. Crane is owner of a Polynesian-type restaurant which recently opened in Cleveland. His fiancée is a designer of light fixtures for Crane's firm.

The pair said they plan to build a home in Los Angeles.

Groucho Readies New TV Series

When it was announced that Groucho Marx was doing a pilot film at NBC this week for a new show, I rushed over to see if the man had snapped a button. "A year ago you were talking about slowing down, even retiring maybe," says I, accusingly. "I did slow down. I'm only working 18 weeks out of the 52. Hal Humphrey We film enough at each weekly session for two shows," says Groucho. "What about the retiring talk?" "I thought about not working, but the show gives me the only fun I have. I tried retiring, but when I'm in Paris I sit in my room at the George V Hotel reading the New York Times while everybody else goes out to some night club."

"TRY SOMEWHERE else, then." "I did. I went to Jamaica, and while everybody else is skin diving, I'm in my hotel room reading the New York Times. Only in Jamaica you don't get the Times as fast as you do in Paris." "But why a new show? What's wrong with the old one?" "The residuals. We have nearly 500 shows now, after 11 years, but nobody will sponsor a repeat run while the same show is on the air."

"Loretta Young did it."

"EVERYBODY says that, but in my case we have to have a different show before anybody will buy the old ones, and we'd like to get the repeats on while I am still alive."

"We?"

"I've had the same crew with me since the beginning, and they get a piece of this residual action, too."

Groucho's new pilot show is called "What Do You Want?" and sounds like a night-time "Queen for a Day" without the agony. A contestant may say he wants to get married or market a new invention. Groucho will advise these exhibitionists in his own inimitable way.

EXCEPT for one question for each guest at the end of the show, the old quiz has been eliminated. A correct answer gets the winner $1,000. All guests get $400 each just for appearing.

"It may be tougher to do this new show without the quiz," says Groucho. "I know that the quiz is supposed to be incidental on my present show, but I think a lot of people may tune in just for the quiz. They like to try to guess the answers."

As long as Groucho is launching a new show, I think he should try something more controversial. He is well read and has decided opinions on many subjects. Groucho easily could do a conversation-type show with guests from other fields (art, literature, music) and still be witty and funny, as well as informative.

Groucho disagrees.

"I'D LIKE to do a show about something, but nobody would buy it," he said. "I don't think there's any spot on the air for anything controversial. Even if you got on with it, you'd get only half the audience, and sponsors want a whole audience."

Groucho's show has been hurt this season because in many cities he comes on opposite the second half of "The Untouchables." In a negative sort of way "The Untouchables" is a controversial show.

Sicilians and Italians are down on it because it portrays so many hoodlums of that national extraction.

The FBI is critical of "The Untouchables" because it makes it look as if Eliot Ness stayed off the crime wave of the '20s and early '30s single-handed. Its distortion of history also irritates many other people, but it is a popular series because this very controversy attracts it to the viewers' attention.

If Groucho's producers want to cause a splash with a new show for him next season, they should give Groucho a whole new area to conquer, instead of just another game-type show. Somewhere there must be a sponsor who sees the logic in that.

Woman Is Held In Jefferson Jail For 1959 Slaying

STUEBENVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Mrs. Margaret N. Trebbe, 45, is held in the Jefferson County jail here on a warrant issued in connection with the slaying two years ago of a Topeka, Kan., junk dealer whom she served briefly as housekeeper.

Don Monhollan, five times married, was found dead, a bullet wound in his chest, in his new Cadillac parked at a Topeka shopping center Jan. 18, 1959.

He had been seen, partly clothed, running from his home to the car the previous day.

Mrs. Trebbe, questioned at the time, said she was not at the home at the time of the shooting, but authorities said she could not account for her whereabouts at that hour.

It was not disclosed what led to issuance of the warrant and her arrest Thursday at the home of a married daughter at nearby Bergholz.

Attorney Bound Over In Alleged $3 Million Fraud

CINCINNATI (AP) — Leslie D. Stickler, 37, Cincinnati attorney, has been bound over to the federal grand jury in an alleged $3.8 million fraudulent investment scheme. But he may agree to trial without grand jury action.

Stickler, charged with fraud by wire, waived a hearing Thursday before a U.S. commissioner and was allowed to remain at liberty under $25,000 bond.

Thomas Stueve, first assistant U.S. attorney, said, however, Stickler had agreed to be tried on a criminal information which would make grand jury action unnecessary.

Stickler is accused of having borrowed money from several hundred Cincinnatians by representing it would be loaned to builders at 20 to 25 per cent interest. Federal and state officials said he never invested the money but continued to borrow more to pay the interest when it was demanded.

The specific federal charge is that he made a telephone call from Cincinnati to Miami Beach, Fla., on Jan. 3 to obtain a loan in the scheme.

Insurance Agent Reaches 'Million'

Heasley is a member of the local Life Underwriters Association, the East Palestine Country Club, Grace United Presbyterian Church, American Legion, Elks and Lions. He is president of the Garfield Home and School Association and coached grade school basketball teams for several years. He served with the Air Force in Europe during World War II.

He is married to the former Pauline Shaw. They reside at 1101 Ohio Ave. with their two children, Debbie Jean, 10, and William E., 4.

GM Cites Record Sales, Near-Record Earnings

NEW YORK (AP) — General Motors Corp. reported Thursday record sales for 1960 and earnings second only to 1955.

Sales were estimated at $12.7 billion, compared with $11.2 billion in 1959. The previous record was $12.4 billion in 1955.

Estimated earnings totaled $959 million, up from $873 million in 1959.

This would be equivalent to $3.35 per share, of which $2 was paid out in dividends and $1.35 retained for use in the business.

Earnings equaled $3.06 per share in 1959.

Medical Mirror

WHAT DOCTORS SAY ABOUT:

Blood Test for Heart Attacks

- Pinworms
- Simple Explanation]
- Bloody Urine
- Cold Milk

Q. Will you please write about the blood test for heart attacks?

A. You are probably referring to the "transaminase test." Various body tissues contain substances (enzymes) which seep into the blood stream when tissue is injured. The heart muscle, for example, contains transaminase, which is released following certain types of "heart attacks." By testing the blood for transaminase, doctors are able to better diagnose, treat, and follow the patient's progress.

Q. In Medical Mirror you said that pinworms are transferred from person to person. How?

A. Pinworms leave the lower intestinal tract of an infected person and lay eggs on the skin around the anal opening. Other people pick up the eggs from the patient's clothing or objects handled by the patient, or by swallowing airborne eggs or in various other ways.

Q. Is it harmful for a person to "put off" going to the bathroom to urinate?

A. Probably not, for males. For females it might definitely be harmful. The reason is that the female urethra (tube leading from bladder) is short. Unless it is frequently flushed out by urination, time is allowed for bacteria to get up into the bladder and cause infection. This would be less likely to occur when the urge is resisted.

Q. If bloody urine turns normal after a day or so should you see a doctor?

A. Yes. You should have a thorough examination if you ever have blood in the urine. Otherwise, you are risking what could be a symptom of a serious condition requiring prompt treatment.

Q. Does the chilling of milk affect the vitamin and protein content?

A. No.

Our primary function is to provide prescription and related health services of the highest quality.

30 At Wellsville Event

C. of C. Guest Hits DiSalle Leniency

Lashing out against Gov. Michael DiSalle's action in commuting the death sentence of three convicted murderers, Atty. John Ballard of Akron, prosecutor of Summit County, defended the judicial and law enforcement systems of Ohio and the nation in an address Thursday night at the annual dinner meeting of the Wellsville Chamber of Commerce.

Thirty attended the meeting at Piatt's Tea Room. It was announced that John Bryer of Acme Craft Ware at Wellsville, School Supt. S. E. Daw, Harold Neff of the Ohio Power Co. and George Rowen of the Rowen Oil Co. at Wellsville were elected as new members of the Board of Directors. The vote was by mail. The directors will meet next Thursday at 8 p. m. at Central Federal Savings & Loan Association to elect officers.

Ballard, a former FBI agent, spoke on the topic of "Justice In Our Criminal Courts." He said the history of American and British jurisprudence is studded with famous criminal cases and that down through the years law enforcement has handled its own with the criminal element in and out of the courtroom.

But, in recent months, this system has come under attack by the governor, Ballard asserted. In each case, the accused had a jury trial which was then reviewed by lower courts and then by the State Supreme Court. All the convictions were upheld, but in all cases, the governor saw fit to take up his own investigation.

"Then the governor has announced a different finding on his own investigation," he said. "In each, the governor said the person is not guilty, or he found a surprise witness the state or defense never knew of, or he said the accused did not get a fair trial," Ballard continued.

Ballard claimed the governor's investigation usually meant talking to the convicted party or defense attorney, and the party's family. He said the announcement was then given to all news media and flashed across the state on the front pages of newspapers.

This has shaken the public faith in law enforcement and the police, prosecutors and courts, he charged. He then quoted statements from a senator showing the rise in the rate of crime in the nation and figures given by J. Edgar Hoover, FBI director, contending that crime costs the nation $23 million annually.

In defense, Ballard said "in our system of justice the cards are stacked for the accused." He said the prosecutor does not go into a courtroom on the same footing as a defense attorney.

The law presumes a man innocent until proven guilty, he pointed out. The first safeguard is the grand jury in which a minority vote of 4 out of 15 rules, resulting in a true bill in which the charge has failed.

The second safeguard, and the best, according to Ballard, is a trial by jury of "12 free-thinking American citizens." He said persons on a jury come from all walks of life and have different backgrounds but all take the job seriously. He said that a prosecutor must prove to all 12 that the accused is guilty while a defense attorney can sway one and win his case.

In answering the question whether innocent people are being convicted of crimes they did not commit, Ballard said "No they are not. It is difficult enough to convict the guilty."

Fred Huston, president, presided. He reviewed the progress of Wellsville over the past few years and expressed his belief the community will prosper in the coming decade.

Ernest Lowe of East Liverpool sang three selections, accompanied by his wife.

The Rev. James Sanko of the Riverside United Presbyterian Church gave the opening prayer.

Atty. William Bush, secretary, L. H. Keay, Myron Weis and Tom

LET'S SEE NOW. After he moved to Brooklyn from Nashville, Tenn., 2½-year-old Bobby Schneitzlein wanted to keep in touch with his old playmates. Too young to write, Bobby decided to get some older help with his problem. Looks like he got it, too, for he seems to be dictating a letter to a helping hand.

Piatt were appointed to a nominating committee to pick a slate of officers.

Kidnaped Doctor In Custody As Witness In Case

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A Steubenville, Ohio, physician was taken into custody Thursday on a warrant holding him as a material witness in the case against two men charged with kidnaping him.

Federal authorities said Dr. Ralph M. Rea, 39, was taken into custody in Steubenville after it was learned he planned a trip to Italy soon.

Rea was brought here Thursday night and lodged in the Allegheny County jail in lieu of $10,000 bond.

Hubert I. Teitelbaum, U.S. attorney here, said Rea would be free to go after he testifies today at the arraignment before a U.S. commissioner of Peter L. Rizzo, 21, and Anthony Pizzuto, 24, both of New York City.

Rizzo and Pizzuto are charged with kidnaping Rea at a Steubenville parking lot on Nov. 16 and driving him into Pennsylvania where he escaped from them. The pair was arrested a short while later. Each is free on $10,000 bond.

Films On East Africa Shown Nebo Grange

LISBON — Jack Hill of Lisbon showed his films of East Africa at the Mt. Nebo Grange meeting Wednesday evening at the Grange Hall. Eleven members attended.

Roll call was "What Granges Should Do Locally for Youth" and there was group singing.

Cookies were served by Mrs. Charles Morlan, secretary.

The next meeting is Feb. 22 at 8 p. m. at the Grange Hall with Charles Morlan, master, presiding.

More Local Latitude Urged In Fund Handle

CLEVELAND (AP)—Mayor Anthony J. Celebrezze says local governments should have greater latitude in handling funds in the federal-state tax total.

"We have the public sitting in our laps all the time," Celebrezze said Thursday night at a meeting of the Cuyahoga County Mayors and City Managers Association. "Maybe we should have more say how the tax money is spent."

Before cooked beef brisket is carved, excess fat should be removed.

Wants Her To Treat Him Too

Senator Hails Kennedy's Selection Of Dr. Travell

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., today cheered President Kennedy's selection of Dr. Janet Travell as the official White House physician and added this plea:

"I certainly hope Jack's kind to me and lets her treat me once in awhile."

Goldwater, one of the foremost conservatives of the Republican party, said the New York doctor also had been treating him for about three years.

"Sen. Kennedy told me about her and telephoned her so I could get my first appointment," the Arizonaan told a reporter. "She's really wonderful."

Goldwater said he had been "troubled with what I think is a pinched nerve in my back."

Dr. Travell, 59, who is married to a New York stock broker, in 1955 treated Kennedy's serious back trouble, which stemmed from a wartime combat injury.

Thursday she said Kennedy's health is "excellent. He is under no restrictions whatsoever. He can eat anything he likes."

She prescribed for him a daily swim in the White House pool and perhaps a little golf.

It was Dr. Travell who discovered that one of Kennedy's legs is slightly shorter than the other, which put a further strain on his back. He now wears a quarter-inch lift in one shoe.

She said she expects she'll see the President daily, "if only to say good morning," as White House physician.

She hinted that her patient may not be as convinced as she is of the need for constant medical attention, "but he may be over-ruled."

Who will do the overruling? "I will," she said.

U.N.'s Chief Warns About Congo Crisis

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld has warned that the big powers might be drawn into "open and active involvement" in the Congo if the smaller nations pull their troops out of the U.N. command.

The secretary-general said these nations must bear the responsibility if the weakening of the U.N. force brought "a disintegration within the country provoking active involvement of major powers."

Hammarskjöld's letter was sent Dec. 14 to Ceylon, Guinea, Indonesia, Morocco, Yugoslavia and the United Arab Republic, all of whom have ordered their forces out of the Congo or threatened to do so. The message was not made public until Thursday, when Hammarskjöld submitted it to Omar Loufi of the U.A.R., Security Council president for January.

The secretary-general apparently decided to make the letter public to try to head off plans by Indonesia, Morocco and the U.A.R. to pull their 4,900 men out of the U.N. force in the next few weeks, reducing the force to 13,259.

All the nations withdrawing their troops are supporters of deposed premier Patrice Lumumba. They are quitting the U.N. force because it has not returned Lumumba to power.

Pressure Mounting At Stanton...

There are no basketballs bouncing around the Stanton Local gymnasium today. The undefeated cagers of the school were told to forget about the hardwood sport — that is until Monday.

That was an order from Harry Diehl, who in his first crack at coaching has directed the Ironmen to 13 straight victories.

Stanton Local has three regular season games remaining, but there now is a lull in the schedule and the team won't return to action until Saturday Feb. 4 against Hopedale.

Are the boys getting on edge? Diehl was asked. The West Virginia grad replied, "The pressure is starting to mount, after 13 in a row they (the opposition) are after you."

"You could see the pressure the other night at Salsville. We looked bad for the first half, but finally got rolling late in the game," Diehl pointed out.

"I told the boys to go home and forget about basketball for the next few days. We won't practice again until Monday. I think the layoff will put us in the right frame of mind for the last three games and the all-important tournament."

Stanton has three toughies to face before the regular season ends, starting with Hopedale.

Diehl has reason to be worried about Springfield, since the Irons must play that club on its own floor at Amsterdam. Stanton will wind up its season with Newell Feb. 10 at Irondale and the Vikings are always dangerous.

"Naturally we like to have an undefeated season, but the tournament is what counts. That's where you play for the hardware," Diehl said.

Looking over the tournament picture, Stanton Local appears to have its hands full right off the bat. There are at least two clubs in Jefferson County which could stop Stanton's tourney drive before it really gets started.

Diehl points to Mt. Pleasant and Brilliant as the two teams to beat. Mt. Pleasant has a 12-1 record at present, while Brilliant is the only team that has defeated the Mounties.

The Jefferson County "A" tourney also is being played at Brilliant again this season.

And the future is rosy for Diehl and Stanton Local fans. Spikes, Mills and Leedy are only juniors and will be around next year.

Diehl is young in the coaching ranks. He'll turn 26 next Friday, Feb. 3.

For his first coaching job, Diehl has started out on the right foot. Before arriving at Irondale, he was a jet pilot in the Air Force for three years.

Although he played basketball in high school, Diehl entered West Virginia University on a track scholarship. He was a standout in the mile and half-mile for the Mounties.

Diehl hails from Mt. Morris, Pa., which is located between Waynesburg and Morgantown.

He attended WVU and became a close friend of Ron Laneve, the former Newell all-state basketball and baseball star.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — U.S. Open champion Arnold Palmer and a flock of other par smashing pros were hot on the trail of a pair of unlikely first round leaders today in the San Francisco International golf tournament.

Stocky Charlie Sifford, the only Negro playing on the professional tour, and 240-pound George Bayer, one of the longest hitters in the game, shot six-under-par 65s Thursday over the rain-soaked Harding Park course to grab the opening lead by a single stroke.

Right behind them with 66s were Palmer, the nation's biggest money winner in 1960, Billy Casper, Ted Kroll, Doug Ford, 49ers football quarterback John Brodie and Stan Leonard, the Canadian veteran.

Chasing them at 67 was steady Bobby Rosburg, winner of the Crosby classic at Pebble Beach last week and now playing some of the best golf of his career.

Some of the sharpest young golfers in the business were right up in contention with 68s, notably Dave Ragan and Tommy Aaron. Also at 68 were Don January, Fred Hawkins, Ernie Vossler and old timer Mike Souchak.

Sifford, 37, 175-pound Los Angeles pro, has won such events recently as the Almaden and Long Beach Opens, but has never taken top money in any of the really big events.

Bayer, 35, former University of Washington football tackle, hasn't been in the winner's circle since last March when he won the St. Petersburg Open.

Red Sox, Patriots Give Allen 'OK'; Grid Offer Between $15,000-$20,000

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

No contracts will be signed until late this spring, but the Boston Red Sox and Boston Patriots have given Bernie Allen, East Liverpool's versatile athlete, the "green light" to play both professional baseball and football.

The All-American from Purdue spent two days this week in Boston conferring with officials of both clubs. The Patriots' offer for football is in the neighborhood of $15,000.

"Money wasn't mentioned when I talked to the Red Sox, but they are willing to match offers of other clubs," Allen said.

Lou Saban, former Cleveland Browns star and head coach of the Patriots, told Allen that he was their No. 1 draft choice, but they had to table the idea when they learned he was planning a baseball career.

Allen said definitely that if he signs to play professional football it will be with the Boston club. The Patriots and Red Sox have close ties. Dom DiMaggio, former outfielder for Boston, is one of the leading officials with the Boston football entry.

Allen talked contract with DiMaggio and Saban.

The Patriots are aware that Allen will miss several early season games. A 14-game schedule is played by AFL teams and he probably would miss several contests in September due to baseball.

Allen said he would like to play both sports, at least for a "few years". However, while he is sold on the Patriots for football, Allen will talk with the other major league baseball clubs.

If he should make the grade as a major league baseball player and a professional football quarterback, Allen would be one of the very few to ever perform in the two different fields.

He was impressed with the fine treatment from both clubs during his visit to Boston.

The ex-Potter three-sports star, said he will not sign until the college baseball season is over at Purdue. Allen has been the Boiler-makers shortstop for the past two seasons and hit over .300 both campaigns.

He has been named to the All-Conference second team both years.

In the spring of 1959 Allen almost became the property of the Washington Senators (now the St. Paul-Minneapolis entry), who were willing to pay him a reported $20,000 bonus.

Floyd Baker, the ex-major league infielder from Youngstown was hot on Allen's trail and almost convinced him to sign.

But with a quarterback job awaiting him at Purdue, Bernie elected to wait, and rightly so. He went on to break into the No. 1 quarterback spot his junior year, then engineered Purdue to several big upsets in the Big 10 this past fall.

Allen was almost the whole show in Purdue's victory over Rose Bowl representative Minnesota.

Bernie wrote a brilliant ending to his college career by throwing three touchdown passes when the North smothered the South in the annual Blue-Gray football game at Birmingham last month.

Stanton Local, the district leader and only unbeaten team for miles around, will rest on its laurels for the next nine days, but there is action in other parts of the district basketball front.

Ten games are listed for tonight's slate and three should be feature attractions.

The Wellsville-Salem contest rates the spotlight in Columbiana County. Coach Jack McDevitt's Tigers go into the game as de-squad are looking for victory No. 9 tonight. Only Newell and Stanton Local have been able to master the Beavers so far this season.

Farmington (W. Va.) invades the area for a two-night stand, visiting Chester tonight and Newell on Saturday. The Panthers are looking for their fourth win. They have lost nine.

Gnadenhuetten visits United tonight, while Coach John Kuzio's fine New Cumberland outfit shoots for its 11th win in 14 games at Brilliant.

Salineville takes its 5-7 record to Fairfield-Waterford, where the Rebels are eyeing their 10th success.

In the Tri-County League, East Palestine goes to Lisbon, Poland visits Leetonia and the Columbiana Clippers play at Louisville.

Saturday, East Liverpool takes on a tall Canton McKinley team at the Canton Fieldhouse. Farmington visits Newell tomorrow night, South Side is at Beaver Local, Fairfield-Waterford entertains Atwater and Salem awaits a visit from Akron South.

Gnadenhuetten visits United tonight, while Coach John Kuzio's fine New Cumberland outfit shoots for its 11th win in 14 games at Brilliant.

Salineville takes its 5-7 record to Fairfield-Waterford, where the Rebels are eyeing their 10th success.

In the Tri-County League, East Palestine goes to Lisbon, Poland visits Leetonia and the Columbiana Clippers play at Louisville.

Saturday, East Liverpool takes on a tall Canton McKinley team at the Canton Fieldhouse. Farm

Few Newcomers Expected To Make It With 'Twins'

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — When the new Minnesota Twins inaugurate major league baseball in Minneapolis-St. Paul next April it will do so with all the old Washington faces. Few newcomers are expected to make the grade.

The rookie with the best chance is Don Mincher, 22, a first baseman acquired from the Chicago White Sox a year ago in a trade. Mincher began as an outfielder but Manager Cookie Lavagetto gave him a first baseman's mitt and told him the job was his if he could hold it. He held it for about a month but obviously was in need of more experience and was optioned to Charleston of the American Association. In 27 games with the Senators, he batted .241 with two homers.

The Meridianville, Ala., boy is back and this time he is expected to stick. He enjoyed a good season at Charleston, hitting .306.

A majority of the newcomers are pitchers, all of doubtful quality. They include Jim Kaat, who probably no longer can be termed a rookie because he hurled 50 innings in the big leagues last year, winning only one of six decisions at Washington. The 22-year-old southpaw was 7-10 at Charleston. Ted Sadowski, a right-hander, may surprise. He was 8-8 at Charleston.

A young man worth watching is Ron Henry, a catcher, who batted .310, hit 13 home runs and drove in 49 runs in 62 games at Austin of the Texas League. He may prove to be the dark horse among the rookies.

Celtics Increase Lead To 4½ With Win Over Philly

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Boston Celtics were riding high today in the Eastern Division of the National Basketball Association with a 4½-game lead, their biggest margin of the year, after defeating second-place Philadelphia. "We've got a good chance to win it," said Coach Red Auerbach of the Celtics after his club had come from behind to defeat the Warriors, 129-121, in the only game Thursday night. It was Philadelphia's third straight loss.

It will be a tough task for the Warriors, who hurt themselves by making only 27 of 44 free throws compared to 31 of 38 by Boston, to catch the Celtics now.

At this same time a year ago, Boston had a 4½-game lead over Philadelphia and went on to win the Eastern crown by 10.

A final surge in the closing minutes by the Celtics Thursday night and their ability to hold Wilt Chamberlain to 25 points, 10 below his average, helped them to victory. In the last three minutes Boston outscored the Warriors, 16-8.

Six-foot-eight Stephen Goulding of Hinsdale, Ill., is one of Yale's two varsity basketball centers.

Vikings Leaning To Youth In NFL Building Program

NEW YORK (AP) — The Minnesota Vikings, newest entry in the 14-team National Football League, are going all out for youth in a long range building program.

Of the 36 "veterans" taken Thursday from the 12 "old" teams (Dallas excepted), 13 were first year men and eight had only two years of pro experience. Only six had played in the league for more than four years. The average experience was 3.4 years.

Norm Van Brocklin, the star of the champion Philadelphia Eagles who is starting a new career as coach of the Vikings, said he got "about what we expected." He said the offensive line was the strongest point of his club.

"We didn't get as many pass defenders and pass catchers as we wanted," he said. "But that is something that every team in the league is looking for. With George Shaw (quarterback acquired from New York in a trade) and Fran Tarkenton (Georgia quarterback who was picked by the Vikings in the draft) we are in pretty good shape."

The Vikings, who still don't know whether they will play in the Eastern or Western Division or operate with Dallas as a "swing team," didn't release the names of all the men they took. Some of their selections were held back until the clubs had time to get in touch with the players. The first group that was announced, the three taken from New York, surprised some for it contained Frank Youso, who has been a regular offensive tackle for the Giants for three years. Youso, however, is a U. of Minnesota product who lived in International Falls where he also operates a business. Don Boll, another offensive tackle, and Bill Kimber, a rookie end, also were taken from the Giants.

Among the better known players taken by the Vikings who must cough up $550,000 for the 36 men, were halfback Hugh McElhenny of San Francisco and Don Joyce, 31-year-old defensive end and tackle with the Baltimore Colts.

Dick Haley, former Pitt back, was taken from Washington, which also lost Red Stephens, an offensive guard. Dave Middleton, an offensive end, was grabbed from Detroit.

Johnson Is Named Athlete Of 1960

By HUGH FULLERTON JR., Associated Press Sports Writer

Rafer Lewis Johnson, Olympic decathlon champion, world record holder and the man who represented perfection to his teammates, is the athlete of the year for 1960.

Johnson, who beat out his protegee, C. K. Yang of Nationalist China in the gruelling 10-event test at the Rome Olympics, was proclaimed the world's greatest all-around athlete after that victory.

And his teammate Lee Calhoun added: "To most of the guys on the team he represents perfection."

Johnson was named today as the Male Athlete of the Year in the annual Associated Press poll by the vote of 256 sports writers and editors throughout the United States. He won out over Arnold Palmer, whose 1960 performances ranked him as the world's outstanding golfer, by a slim margin of 19 points in the balloting.

Johnson will receive the Fraternal Order of Eagles-Frederick C. Miller trophy at a civic luncheon in Milwaukee Feb. 27. He is the first American athlete to receive the trophy in three years. It was won last year by Sweden's Ingemar Johansson, then world heavyweight champion. The year before it was Herb Elliott, the Australian miler.

Johnson was named first on 93 of the 256 ballots. Palmer, winner of the U.S. Open golf championship and the Masters and second in the British Open, received 73 first place votes. On a point basis, with three awarded for a first place vote, two for second and one for third it was Johnson 398 and Palmer 379.

Floyd Patterson, the first boxer ever to lose the heavyweight championship and regain it, placed third in the voting with 29 firsts and 168 points. Norm Van Brocklin, who quarterbacked the Philadelphia Eagles to the National Football League championship, was fourth with 10 firsts and 141 points.

Johnson, a powerful 6-foot-3 Negro from Kingsburg, Calif., went into the Olympics as an outstanding favorite. Two months before he had bettered the listed world record of the Soviet Union's Vasily Kuznetsov by more than 200 points. He had been chosen as the flag bearer for the American team in the opening ceremony—an indication of the high regard in which his teammates held him.

Others in the top ten in the balloting were: Joe Bellino, football 68 points, fifth; Dick Groat, baseball 63 points, sixth; Jerry Lucas, basketball 42 points, seventh; Ted Williams, baseball 26 points, eighth; Vernon Law, baseball 23 points, ninth; Bill Mazeroski, baseball 23 points, tenth.

Players Acquired In Trades Spark Last-Place Bruins

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sparked by some of the players acquired in recent trades, the last-place Boston Bruins seem to be making themselves a factor in the National Hockey League race—a bit too late for them to bid for a place in the playoffs.

The Bruins kept the Toronto Maple Leafs from gaining a tie with Montreal for the NHL lead Thursday night and it was a former Canadian, traded to Boston this season, who turned the trick. Andre Pronovost slapped in the winning goal for Boston's 5-4 victory over the Leafs in the third period. Murray Oliver, one of the three newcomers from Detroit, provided one of the assists.

In Thursday night's other game the third-place Chicago Black Hawks and the Detroit Red Wings scrapped to a 2-2 tie, marked by fine goal tending by Glenn Hall of the Hawks and Terry Sawchuk of the Wings.

The Bruins' victory was their third in five games but it left them four points behind the New York Rangers and 14 behind Detroit.

Bucks, Purdue Battle Is Set On Saturday

Ohio State's top-ranked Buckeyes and 10th-ranked Purdue meet Saturday in a regionally televised Big Ten basketball game featuring a scoring battle between Jerry Lucas and Terry Dischinger.

Lucas, the Buckeye All-American, has scored 87 points in three conference games—an average of 29.5 points in four games.

Especially since the game will be played at Columbus, Ohio State will be favored, but Purdue still figures to be dangerous and could end the Buckeye string of 18 victories over a two-season span.

Dischinger, held to 19 points by Iowa and 17 by Northwestern, should be at his peak after recovering from a cut on the middle finger of his right hand. Lucas recently was troubled by a knee injury but should be in top shape.

Only one other Big Ten game is on Saturday's schedule: Minnesota at Northwestern. Three other teams meet nonconference opponents.

Indiana will be at home against DePaul while Illinois and Wisconsin are featured in a Chicago Stadium doubleheader. Illinois tangles with Notre Dame and Wisconsin meets Loyola of Chicago.

Emotion Should Be Balanced With Motion

Elbert Hubbard, a practical philosopher, imparted a secret which he claimed to be the most valuable and far-reaching known to man. "Let motion equal emotion."

While I do not agree with all of the ideas this philosopher included in his "Notebook," that one about motion is a real gem. The cure by Ida Jean Kain for frustrations and pent-up feelings is action. Emotion balanced by motion preserves sanity. The recipe for strength is to use our bodies.

So firm was Hubbard's belief in this law of nature that he promised this: "Make motion equal motion, and you will eliminate fear, round out the century run, and be efficient to the last."

RECENTLY I talked with a zesty nonagenarian and asked him his recipe for longevity with health. He told me that he walks four miles every day and believes it keeps him feeling young.

So many of you write that you turn to food when you are frustrated, that you eat when things go wrong, and relieve your pent-up feelings in "nervous nibbling." If you could let motion equal emotion, this would serve a double purpose. Not only would you avoid surplus calories that add padding, but you would stir up the circulation and burn up stored fuel.

What do you do to let off steam? One woman I know moves the living room furniture around ... then if she doesn't like the room arranged that way, she moves it back again. Needless to say, she is not fat.

Another friend takes her frustrations out in millinery. She goes out and buys a new hat. Well, that's an expensive hobby...hats cannot be returned.

Walking is my safety-valve and it's a wonderful way to "air" vexations. If you can, get out and walk off your pent-up feelings. You balance emotion with motion. When you stay home with your worries, they tend to close in on you.

It's good to take a close look at something as commonplace as our need for more physical activity. Motion is guaranteed to cure boredom. The bored people who turn to food are the ones who do very little in the way of activity. Boredom makes for tiredness, but it's a restless fatigue, not a healthy, physical one.

IT IS NECESSARY to be aware that you habitually use food as a means of escape from life's dissatisfactions. When you turn to food to solve a problem that has nothing to do with food, you still have the problem ... and excess pounds, too.

Take action. Action stirs up interest and banishes boredom. Make slimming down and shaping up a part of joyous living and you'll have it made.

Send a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope for "Wake Up And Stretch." Address your request to Ida Jean Kain, in care of this newspaper. Postcard requests cannot be answered.

Ohio Legislature Recesses

Assembly Waits Maloon's Money Bill Amendments

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio legislature was in recess to-day while the Republican leadership awaited amendments to the appropriations bill by Finance Director James H. Maloon to bring spending proposals in line with anticipated revenue.

The weekend recess by the Republican-controlled legislature gave Maloon time to prepare his amendments which would cut all of the program improvements out of Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's budget but let the state squeak through the next two-year bookkeeping period without new taxes.

Maloon's amendments, when submitted, will cast aside all chance for state-supported salary increases for teachers, all added money for Ohio's hard-pressed state universities and the thousands of welfare recipients.

Republicans have objected to the DiSalle-Maloon budget on grounds it calls for spending of about $75 million in the next two years above revenues Maloon estimates present taxes will produce.

After a two-hour joint session Wednesday night of the Senate and House finance committees, Maloon promised, if asked, to cut out all program improvements to balance the budget. DiSalle told newsmen the request for the amendments was filed by the Republican leadership Thursday.

Minority Democrats did not go through with their threat Thursday to submit the governor's unbalanced budget, despite earlier talk.

Before the recess, Sen. Fred L. Hoffman, R-Hamilton, offered a resolution requesting a formal opinion by the attorney general on the validity of two constitutional amendments approved by the voters in 1959.

Hoffman said the same legislative procedure was followed on both amendments as was taken in respect to another amendment.

Lisbon Man Hurts Foot In Accident

A Lisbon area man who injured a toe when a can of water fell on his foot was treated early to-day at City Hospital, where three district youngsters were taken Thursday after separate mishaps.

George A. Brown, 28, of Lisbon R.D. 2 suffered an injury to the large toe of the left foot when the can fell. He was treated at 2:05 a.m.

Scott McCoy, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. George McCoy, 280 Gardendale Ave., suffered a laceration of the nose in a fall while playing at home yesterday.

David McHenry, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. William McHenry, 132 Indiana Ave., Chester, was treated for a laceration of a finger which caught in a door at school.

Richard Wright, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wright of Hooks-ton, received a possible injury to the collarbone when he fell while running.

Boston Girl, 12, Wins Skate Title

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — A 12-year-old Boston schoolgirl with an elfin smile and nimble feet is the darling of the 1961 National Figure Skating Championships.

Red-haired Albertina Noyes vaulted from sixth place into the championship for novice ladies Thursday night to carry away the first individual title in the four-day show. Her counterpart among novice men was 15-year-old Peter Meyer of Buffalo, N. Y., the first-day leader.

Miss Noyes five-minute free skating program before 800 fans was good enough to overcome an early disadvantage. Joya Utermohlen, 14, of New York City, was second.

A Chicago couple, Vivian and Ronald Joseph, won the junior pairs championship to wind up the Thursday night program.

Kasko Redlegs' MVP For 1960

CINCINNATI (AP) — Eddie Kasko, who played at third base, shortstop and second base for the Cincinnati Reds last season, today was named the team's most valuable player of 1960 by the Cincinnati chapter of the Baseball Writers of America.

Kasko, who lives in Richmond, Va., also signed his 1961 contract, bringing to 20 the number of Reds in the fold.

Kasko, the Reds' second best hitter of 1960 with a .292 average, started the season at third base, filled in at shortstop for a time and finished the year as the team's second baseman.

Kasko, 28, is the sixth player to receive the "most valuable" designation from the baseball writers. Others were Frank Robinson in 1959; Johnny Temple in 1958; Don Hoak in 1957; Roy McMillan in 1956 and Wally Pitt in 1955.

Kenyon's Slade Hikes Point Edge

By The Associated Press
Jeff Slade of Kenyon, who boasts the top scoring average in the Ohio Conference, enhanced it with 29 points in a nonleague 59-56 triumph by the Lords over Wilmington Thursday night on the losers' court. One of his buckets put Kenyon in front to stay with three minutes to go.

Across the state at Youngstown, Y.U.'s Penguins won over Gannon (Pa.) 90-72 as Howie McElroy went Slade one better with 30 points. This helped the Penguins boost their season record to an outstanding 13-3.

Kent State was slated to play host to Western Kentucky in the only other game on the Ohio card but it was postponed to March 4 when the weather in Kentucky made travel conditions bad.

The New York Rangers lost nine of their first 37 games this season by the margin of one goal.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a gal who is 5 feet 8 inches tall in stocking feet. Of course a girl can't go anywhere in stocking feet so I'm 5 feet 10 inches tall in shoes.

When I go to a party where there is dance music a certain little runt always manages to seek me out. He's an excellent dancer but he's about two heads shorter than I am and he nestles his head on my bosom when we dance.

The other night we won the first prize and I didn't even realize we were in a contest. I suspect we won not because we were such good dancers but because we were so funny looking.

Please tell me what to do the next time this shrimp asks me to dance. Now that we're a "prize-winning team" I may be stuck forever.—LONG SAL.

Dear Sal: Where's your sense of humor, gal? No one ever laughs at people who are smart enough to laugh at themselves. While you're dancing with the runt keep an eye peeled for a basketball player.

Poetic Larceny

Dear Ann: I'm a girl 17 who is very mixed up about my feelings toward my mother.

I'm very fond of a fellow who goes to college in the East. We've gone together two years—the last year steady. His letters are beautiful. Sometimes he writes me poetry. Of course it's all very romantic and personal—intended for my eyes only.

I learned today that my mother read my letters and the poetry to her bridge club when they met at our house last week. I was heart-sick.

When I asked for an explanation Mother said she thought the letters were so wonderful she wanted to share them with others. I never knew until now that she read my mail. What shall I say to her? I haven't been able to think straight enough to say anything yet.—DIS-APPOINTED.

Dear Disappointed:

The poetry was not intended for your mother and she had no right to see it, much less share it with others.

She was of course showing you off to her lady friends so please try to temper your judgment with

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Family Money Problems Discussed

In the best of times, some parents are out of work. A few may be unable to work because of illness. Right now a great many parents are unemployed. Whatever the cause, if either parent, having been regularly employed, suddenly loses his or her job, new problems usually arise for the children and when both Dr. Garry Meyers parents lose their jobs, these problems mount. Children accustomed to having most things they want and generous, even excessive amounts of money to spend, may be very much upset when they suddenly are denied these things.

But those children old enough to understand may be able to adapt themselves reasonably to the sudden deprivations if their parents sit down calmly with them and explain the reasons why, pointing out the available family income and its limitations.

IF THESE children had, while all was well, been practiced at sharing such information with their

Wide Search Continues For Killer Suspect

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP)—A widespread manhunt continued today for an armed accused slayer after officers apprehended the youth who a few hours earlier broke him out of jail at gunpoint.

Still at large was Howard Lowery, Bethany, Okla., charged with murder in the hitchhike slaying of Dan W. Sims, 28, Worthington, Pa., near Yukon, Okla., last summer.

Lowery last was seen near the Oklahoma City Municipal Airport where Oklahoma City officers caught Mike Marks, 18, El Reno, Okla., as he fled on foot from the wreckage of the pair's stolen getaway car.

Marks and Lowery had eluded highway patrol roadblocks for some six hours before they were spotted near Will Rogers Airport at the southeast edge of Oklahoma City shortly after midnight. The getaway car crashed into a telephone pole and the two men jumped out and fled on foot. Marks was caught on an airport runway. He offered no resistance.

Dale Hise, 20-year old Oklahoma City service station attendant, was in the wrecked car. He said Marks and Lowery abducted him after robbing him of $40 at the service station in northwest Oklahoma City where he works.

Hise said Lowery, armed with a gun, threatened him repeatedly. Officers in El Reno, Okla., said earlier Lowery had voiced threats against the lives of his wife, Helga Lowery of Bethany, and an Oklahoma Crime Bureau agent, Golden Kennedy of Oklahoma City.

Marks was released from the Canadian County jail at El Reno, Thursday after serving a sentence for carrying a concealed weapon. He returned Thursday night and asked to be allowed to sleep in the jail.

Rowe said as he was searching Marks, he pulled a gun and demanded the keys. After releasing Lowery, Rowe said, the two forced jail inmate G. R. Deason, a Texan serving a term for burglary, to go with them.

Deason later was pushed out of the fugitives' car south of El Reno, about 30 miles west of Oklahoma City, called officers and was back in jail a short time later.

Even the President is forbidden by law to change the decor of the first floor of the White House.

Captured Gunman To Be Arraigned

CLEVELAND (AP)—Frank Cypryla, 32, of Akron, who twice engaged in gun battles with police and FBI before he was captured near Massillon Monday, was to be arraigned in Federal Court today.

Summit County Prosecutor John Ballard turned Cypryla over to the FBI late Thursday.

Cypryla will be charged with at least three counts of assault with intent to kill. Cypryla fired at two federal agents in Youngstown a week ago and again fired at FBI men and police the day he was captured.

He faces 10 years imprisonment on each assault charge and also may be charged with stealing federal property, the gun he took when he disarmed an agent in Youngstown, Ballard said.

Cypryla also is wanted in at least three armed robberies in Youngstown and Akron and narcotics peddling in Stark County.

State courts could try Cypryla after he is tried in Federal Court.

Sand, surf and summer sun are among the treats in store for the boys at Copacabana Beach.

From the top of Sugar Loaf Mountain, seen in the background, one has a breathtaking view of Rio.

The newspaperboys will enjoy a red-carpet tour of Rio in modern sightseeing buses such as this.

Petropolis—a luxurious mountain resort—will provide an unforgettable interlude for the boys.

A highlight of the trip will be Brasilia, Brazil's new capital, the most modern city in the world!

Sao Paulo, Brazil's great industrial center, and Porto Alegre are other cities the boys will see.

YOUR NEWSPAPERBOY CAN VACATION IN SUNNY BRAZIL!

Imagine! This winter your newspaperboy may be swimming and sunning in beautiful Brazil, where the seasons are the reverse of ours and it will be summer!

This fabulous trip, will all expenses paid, is one of many opportunities offered our newspaperboys in recognition of the fine service they provide to readers.

What a treat for the boys! And what a treat for you, now that winter's here, to have your newspaper delivered to your home, in all kinds of weather.

Your newspaperboy will be happy to provide you with convenient, dependable home delivery service every day of the year. And, he'll welcome the opportunity to tell you how you can help him become a "Junior Reporter" and win the trip to Brazil.

The lucky boy will fly non-stop to Brazil via Varig Airlines' luxurious new Boeing 707 Jet that has cut flight time from New York to Rio from 22 hours to nine. He'll swim at famous Copacabana Beach in Rio; ride a cable car to the top of Sugar Loaf Mountain and enjoy a spectacular view of Rio's beautiful harbor; visit Brasilia, the world's most modern city; fly to Sao Paulo and Porto Alegre; visit a coffee plantation; have the time of his life, and write a story about the trip and see it appear in the newspaper under his own byline!

What a treat; having your newspaper home delivered, and helping your carrierboy win the trip of a lifetime!
